PRESIDENT LOSES SUPREME COURT BATTLE

Queen Of Oregon Trail Fete

LAVONNE LEDAHL

A slender, blue-eyed blonde, LaVonne Ledahl, was chosen to rule over the Oregon Trail celebration in Eugene, Ore., July 22-24. In her hand, the queen, given title of Queen Susannah, holds a pioneer rose, the roots of which came across the plains with Lewis and Clark more than 130 years ago.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

When it comes to catching fish, the South Side claims two young men who stand out like diamonds among rocks. Romeo Pacelli, Hamilton street, former well known boxer, and Mike Joseph, East Long avenue, take to the waters on several occasions during the week and seldom return home empty-handed. They have just returned from Conneaut Lake where they caught bass weighing more than three pounds.

Highway department workmen are repairing the 422 route signs along the Youngstown road.

Have you ever noticed how quickly a crowd congregates on the street when there is a crash? Instinctively everybody within hearing seems to know that two cars have come together. It may be only a bent fender or a case of interlocking bumpers, but spectators converge on the scene as the cars stop and the occupants get out. What they are really looking for is not to find out how badly the cars are damaged, but to see if there is a scrap between the drivers.

This month ends the period allotted for inspection of autos, and reports indicate that there are hundreds of cars in this community that have not as yet been given the new inspection tags.

President Loses Major Conflict

First Real Check On Leadership Suffered On Court Issue

DEFEAT IS ONE OF MAJOR CALIBRE

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 22.—President Roosevelt has lost his first major conflict with congress.

A few of his vetoes have been overridden before by a politically-conscious congress, notably in the soldiers bonus and the government pay-cut cases, but in the epic struggle over increasing the membership of the supreme court, the president may be said to have suffered the first real check on his leadership.

Until it is seen what type of a judiciary bill eventually is brought out by the opposition the full extent of Mr. Roosevelt's defeat cannot be measured, but it was conceded by all today that it is a defeat of major calibre.

Mr. Roosevelt never "went down the line" for any legislation as he did for the court bill. From the time he submitted it to a startled congress last February until this

Oppose Move For Early Ending Of Congress Session

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—A coalition of house blocs to resist sentiment for adjournment of congress before major legislative proposals are acted upon was indicated today.

Widespread demand for enactment of a farm program, wage and hour law and the Wagner housing bill was voiced by house bloc members, while others predicted a rush to adjourn once the court fight is finally ended.

Meantime, to prepare for a possible quick closing of the seven months session, the house appropriations deficiency subcommittee speeded hearings on the final appropriation bill to be enacted before congress goes home. The measure may be ready for passage within a week.

The most pronounced drive against early adjournment came from groups supporting farm legislation.

Concede Defeat Of Proposals For Supreme Court

Senate Opposition To President's Court Bill Is Triumphant

SOME CHANGES IN LESSER JUDICIARY

New Bill Making Minor Changes To Be Acted Upon In Senate

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 22.—In a complete surrender to the opponents of President Roosevelt's supreme court bill, the administration today agreed to recommitting it to the judiciary committee for a complete revision, which will eliminate all the proposed fundamental changes in the federal judiciary.

This procedure was agreed upon by Vice President Garner and Senator Barkley, the newly elected Democratic leader at a lengthy conference with the senate judiciary committee. Senator Wheeler (D) of Montana, head of the opposition, also attended the conference and approved the agreement.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The triumphant senate opposition to President Roosevelt's supreme court bill today undertook the task of "writing their own ticket" on judicial changes for the lesser federal judiciary while banning all changes in the nation's highest tribunal.

This offer to the opposition to "write their own ticket" came from Vice President Garner after the administration conceded defeat on the president's bill. The senate judiciary committee was summoned into special session this morning to initiate the final compromise, which both sides expect to enact before congress adjourns.

Probable Provisions

The new bill probably will carry provisions to:

1. Authorize immediate appeals from district court to the supreme court on issues involving the constitutionality of federal laws.
2. Authorize the attorney general to intervene in any private suit in which constitutional questions are raised affecting the government's interest.
3. Place a limitation on fees and salaries in receivership cases.
4. Limit the use of injunctions by federal courts to prevent the operation of federal laws upon the ground of unconstitutionality.
5. Harmonize conflicting consti-

Youth Killed By Train In Illinois

Message Says Accident Victim Believed From New Castle

Chief of Police Criswell today received a message from Paris, Ill., stating a young man believed to be from New Castle was killed by a train in the railroad yards there. The message was signed by the sheriff. According to the sheriff's message the young man had said to railroad men he was from New Castle. The young man is described as follows:

American, 20 years old, 160 pounds in weight and five feet 10 inches tall. He has brown eyes, dark curly hair and the tip of his index finger is off. It apparently was cut off some years ago.

In his possession was a road map, marked by the northern route from New Castle to the coast and marked by the southern route to return to New Castle.

Col. Lindbergh Seeks To Perfect His Work On "Artificial Heart"

LONDON, July 22.—In the seclusion of his English country home at Weald, amidst the rolling foothills of Kent, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh today was seeking the secret of life.

With aviation which made him world famous now a secondary interest, Lindbergh is devoting his time to perfection of the "artificial heart" he has invented and which may give him an even more lasting niche in the hall of fame than his aeronautical achievements.

Back from his dramatic flying visit to the lonely island of St. Gildas on the Brittany coast, where he carried out experiments with his collaborator, Dr. Alexis Carrel, Lindbergh is working far into the night on his "robot heart".

Two Bandits Are Shot And Reign Of Terror In Southwest Is Ended

(International News Service)

HUGO, Okla., July 22.—Two quit-witted, straight-shooting World war veterans were the heroes of the southwest today as Roy "Pete" Traxler, No. 1 Texas outlaw whom the veterans shot and captured, lay near death here.

Traxler, a bullet near his heart, was given a blood transfusion and a fifty-fifty chance to survive. He was wounded and his comrade in crime, Fred Tindol, was slain when the two men they had abducted overcame them.

Heavy Fighting Around Madrid

Report Former Spanish Minister Of War On Secret London Mission

(International News Service)

HENDAYE, France, July 22.—Heavy fighting continued today on the blood-soaked battle-front west of Madrid.

Government officails at Madrid issued a communique claiming that loyalist forces recaptured Hill 660 west of the Spanish capital after bitter fighting.

It was reported here that Rebel Generalissimo Francisco Franco has given a secret mission to Gil Robles, former Spanish minister of war and leader of the Spanish Catholic conservatives, to visit London.

Political friends of Robles were reported to have declared this mission marks the beginning of a new policy in nationalist Spain, and that Robles might be called upon to play an important role in organization of a "new state".

Democratic Bait Lands Muscallonge

Up to a short time ago Attorney Clarence A. Patterson had the idea that fish came from cans. A few of his friends convinced him they really lived in water and he went to Warren county with Wayne D. Stitzinger for his maiden effort in the gentle art of casting.

By all the rules he should not have caught a fish. All he did was catch a 39-inch 16-pound muscallonge that looks like something out of a Chamber of Commerce prospectus.

It only goes to prove that the Democrats have all the luck.

East Side Day Is Fine Success

Annual Outing Takes Place At Cascade Park, Wednesday

WEATHER MAN SMILES ON EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. East Side took the afternoon and evening off Wednesday, July 21, packed a basket and had a big time in Cascade Park when the annual East Side Community picnic was held. Weather conditions were perfect for the enjoyment of the day and the crowd attending the picnic took full advantage of it.

At one o'clock the folks started to gather in the park and the athletic events, the free dancing and the various amusements of the park offered them diversement until the supper hour. Until five o'clock everybody was button-holing men and king them if they were the "East Side Mystery Man." About five, Joseph Johnson asked Joseph McCaskey the question and Mr. McCaskey broke down and confessed that he was guilty as indicted.

In the afternoon dancing of all kinds was enjoyed, round and square and some that looked slightly rectangular. Moving through the crowd all afternoon were the men who were after votes, the candidates for office and the number of cards out if placed end to end would have ended somewhere in Shenango township, depending where you started to lay them.

At six o'clock the picnickers enjoyed suppers in the grove, most of the tables being taken. At seven-thirty the prizes were distributed from the grand stand by General Chairman Carl W. Haufler and his colleagues and a number of people went home with articles they can use in the home.

It was an ideal picnic day. The crowd was orderly, the weatherman was in an amiable frame of mind and everybody seemed to enjoy the affair.

Registration In City Tomorrow

City registrars will be at the office of Alderman Brice at North and Jefferson streets tomorrow and Saturday for the purpose of registering eligible voters whose names are not now on the official list. The registration is for those who for any reason have failed to register in the past, for those who have moved from one district to another and for those who desire to change their party affiliation. Registrations will be from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and in the evening from 7 to 10.

Twin Troubles For These Twins

Roy Sebring, Louise Coats, Ray Sebring and Lois Coats

Marital mixup involving three pairs of identical twins comes to light in Los Angeles with the filing of a double annulment action. The twin complaint was filed by Hubert and Herbert Sharp, identical twins, seeking annulments from twins Lois and Louise Coats, charging they still were married to Ray and Roy Sebring when they went through a ceremony in Oneida, Ark., last October. The Coats twins married the Sebring twins, who are marines, in Fort Washington, Wash., in 1934. The Sharp twins allege that the Coats sisters married them in Arkansas after having received only their interlocutory decrees without waiting for final decrees.

France Charges German Sub Bases Established In Spanish North Africa

By DAVID P. SENTNER

(Copyright, 1937, by International News Service)

LONDON, July 22.—Britain's imperial defense committee met today to discuss French charges that German submarine bases have been established in Spanish North Africa.

Latest Italian activities at Majorca, where it was reported 600 Italian military technicians have taken over military control of the island, also were considered.

Most of the Italian technicians at Majorca were said to be airmen.

The Italians also were reported to be heavily fortifying the island and establishing an air base housing 40 war planes in underground hangers.

Threat To Britain

Officials here feared the reported German and Italian activities might prove a distinct threat to Britain's Mediterranean "life-line."

The swift action of the imperial defense committee in taking the reports under consideration gave added weight to the recent house of commons speech by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, warning Italy and other nations that Britain is now prepared to fight for her Mediterranean interests.

This speech, one of the most forthright ever uttered by a British statesman since the end of the World war, has been generally regarded here as under-lining a stiffening of British foreign policy to-

Garden Damage In First Ward

Shrubbery Also Seared By Some Mysterious Element During Past Few Days

Gardens and shrubbery in the First ward, particularly in the Grant street district, look as though a ten degree frost had hit the district overnight.

Barberry hedges, ferns, tomato gardens, pear trees, other trees, lawns and such flowers as dahlias, larkspur and petunias are brown and withered due, it is believed, to some acid in the air in the past few days.

The hardier trees such as elms and maples, stood up under the barrage, but for the most part the foliage in the district is ruined for the year.

Residents are hoping the damage is only seasonal and that the foliage will return next spring. In the case of ferns, however, there seems little hope.

City Forester Owen Fox reports that damage done by the acid or fumes has been extensive. He says that the foliage on the public square was in line of the acid, or whatever has been the cause, and has been ruined. The first trouble was experienced on Tuesday night, and there was a recurrence last night, he says. Damage done in the city has been extensive, he reports.

TROOPS WITHDRAW FROM DANGER ZONE

Believe War Danger In Peiping Area Has Now Been Averted

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

TOKYO, July 22.—The grave dispute between Japan and China in the Peiping area has been virtually settled, the war ministry announced officially tonight.

General Sung Cheh-Yu An, chairman of the Hopei-Chahar political council, has agreed to replace the anti-Japanese officers of the 29th route army with unantagonistic leaders, the announcement said.

General Sung is anxious to remove all malcontents from the North China area and put a stop to the northward penetration of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Nanking regime, which is exactly in line with Japan's policies.

An important army officer due here from Tokyo tomorrow is expected to inform the war ministry the North China garrison desires to clear the entire territory of all Chiang Kai-Shek elements and wishes blanket sanction to take all means necessary to achieve this aim.

General Sung's agreement is accepted here as dependable, whether or not it is honored by the Nanking government.

Outlook For Peace

Peiping, July 22.—After hours of indecision and threats of a renewed Japanese attack on Chinese positions, the outlook for a peaceful settlement of the Sino-Japanese dispute suddenly brightened today as troops of both sides withdrew from the danger zones.

Units of the 37th Chinese division left the Wang Ping area and Japanese troops retired from their "front line" posts to concentration points in the region of Gengtai.

Earlier, Chinese authorities had informed International News Service that a Japanese attack might be expected momentarily.

State Assistance Plans Progress

Advisory Board Of Nine Members Is Named For State Service

EMPLOYMENT BOARD IS ALSO APPOINTED

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 22.—Organization of the commonwealth's new department of public assistance neared completion today.

Gov. George H. Earle announced appointment of the nine-member board of public assistance, created to act in an advisory capacity to the cabinet head, and the two-member employment board, set up to administer examinations for department employes.

The members of the state board of public assistance were:

Joseph K. Willing, Philadelphia; Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore college, Swarthmore, Delaware county; Msr. Anna Ewing Cort, Greensburg; John G. Watson, Pittsburgh; William J. Brennan, Scranton; Neil Chrisman, Wilkes-Barre; Karl De Schweinitz, secretary of the department; F. Clair Ross, state treasuerr, and Warren R. Roberts, auditor general, ex-officio.

The employment board will consist of Shippen Lewis of Philadelphia and Mrs. Susan Fouse of Pittsburgh.

Meanwhile, De Schweinitz announced appointment of Maj. Philip Matthews, Pittsburgh, and Howard L. Russell, Harrisburg, as deputies in his department. He indicated it would be some time before the local county assistance boards are selected. Pending the appointments, the present system of administering public assistance and direct relief will remain the same in the state's 67 counties, he said.

Creates Second Mechanical Heart.

In it, Lindbergh has created a second mechanical heart, a duplicate of the original apparatus he invented. Surrounded by stacks of scientific books on the subject of the motive force of the blood stream, living cells and gland secretions, Lindbergh is working in his "chamber of eternal life".

Friends claim he and Dr. Carrel have now succeeded in keeping animal tissues alive for as long as four weeks after they have been removed from the body of an animal. They have succeeded in keeping the brain of an animal alive after its removal.

If the period during which the brain is kept alive can be extended sufficiently, it will be, in the opinion of brain specialists, one of the greatest discoveries of medical science. It will enable scientists to watch the course of a brain disorder and see the effect of various types of treatment, which would be impossible with a living human being because of the danger of death.

Object of the "robot heart" is to prolong as long as possible the life tissues and organs by feeding them with a nutritive element in liquid form and maintaining a form of circulation by blood compression.

ward Europe's dictator nations, partly the result of Britain's gigantic rearmament plan.

The defense committee meeting followed French accusations of Nazi intrigue in Spanish Morocco and charges that Germany has constructed six airplane and submarine bases in that region.

These charges are believed to be the subject of important, behind-the-scenes Anglo-French talks.

Observers linked the charges with recent British ire following discovery that Spanish insurgents had mounted a battery of big guns at Algeciras within easy firing distance of Britain's huge fortress at Gibraltar.

Renews Charges.

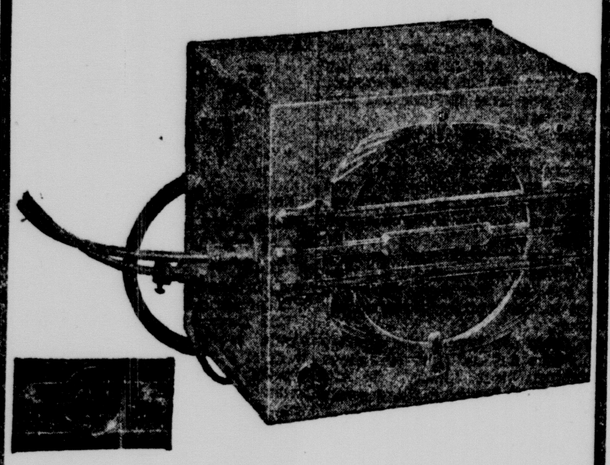

Paris, July 22.—France has renewed accusations that Germany has constructed six airplane and submarine bases, defended by artillery, in Spanish north African territory, it was disclosed today.

The government, it was learned, has handed to the British foreign office complete reports alleging the Reich built a submarine base, an airdrome, an electric plant, a radio station and anti-aircraft coastal batteries at Cueta, Melilla, Laroach and Ifni in Spanish Morrocco, and also in Rio Del Oro and in the Canaries.

The charges were accompanied by photographs taken by French fliers.

Meanwhile, the French foreign office remained pessimistic regarding chances for solution of the non-intervention deadlock in London. Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos insists he will hold out against recognition of the Spanish insurgents as belligerents until withdrawals of foreign troops from Spain have been carried out.

He swings it aloft and strikes the boulder a terrific blow, but the sledge merely bounds back like a rubber ball. Again and again smashing blows rain on the boulder, but it is hard and can "take it". Sixty-five times by actual count the sledge swings through the air, and as often bounds off the big stone. Steaming and puffing, the man stands aside and his companion takes the sledge. Bang, bang, bang, it goes until more than 50 blows are struck. Then suddenly the boulder parts, right thru the center, and the two sledge slingers feel the thrill of success. What a lesson in perseverance. Just as dripping water will wear away the hardest rock, so the constant pounding set in motion the molecules of that giant boulder, until it no longer could stand the strain. Just another triumph of mind over matter.

Senator Barkley Faces First Test

Measure To Over-ride President's Veto To Be Up In Senate

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 22—Senator Alben W. Barkley met his first test as majority leader today when he faced the task of sustaining the president's veto of a bill extending low interest rates on federal farm loans.

The veto was over-ridden by the house by a large majority so it evolved upon Barkley to prevent the bills enactment into law.

The measure is the first on Barkley's new legislative program for the senate. It includes federal housing legislation to plug tax loopholes, wages, hours, extension of sugar quotas, and possibly an omnibus farm bill if various factions can agree.

The bill vetoed by the president was considered a partial test of Barkley's leadership. A large bipartisan bloc stands ready to fight for its final enactment.

The fight to over-ride the veto will be led by Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, who characterized the bill as the "cheapest of all farm relief" and a measure which "permits the farmers to save his self-respect."

FAT WOMEN SMOTHER IN TIGHT GIRDLES

Tight girdles and stiff foundation garments actually make many women look fatter. Instead of squeezing your fat, why don't you try to get rid of it? Why not have a slim, lovely, youthful figure that needs but little girdle control?

Thousands of overweight women have found that the Marmola way is the easy way to get rid of ugly fat. Just take 4 Marmola Prescription Tablets each day, and in place of starchy foods like potatoes and pastries, eat more salads, fruits, green vegetables, and go slow on fatty meats. That's simple, isn't it? Yet what a difference Marmola and this little change in your diet may make in your weight. Losses of 5 to 8 pounds a week have been reported in many cases from this simple, easy method of reducing. TWO BANDITS ARE SHOT AS REIGN OF TERROR ENDS farmer near Holesworth, Okla., accomplished the slaying and capture without help after both had been abducted and forced to accompany the bandits.

The dramatic story of how the two unarmed veterans overcame the leg-weary desperadoes, achieving alone what hundreds of officers had been unable to do, was told simply by Trimmer.

"We had been driving several hours over back roads." Trimmer said. "I was at the wheel, and one of these fellows (Tindol) had a gun at the back of my neck.

Tells Of Action

"They forced me to turn down a lonely road and stop about eight miles north of Boswell, Okla. Traxler was sitting beside me in the front seat, and Benton and Tindol were in the back seat.

"When we stopped, I looked over at Traxler and noticed he was dozing. I looked back at Tindol and saw that he too was asleep. Then I glanced at Benton.

"At first I had thought Benton was another bandit, but somehow I realized he was in the same boat I was. We didn't say anything to each other, but when I glanced at him we both knew what to do.

"I made a dive for Traxler's gun, and Benton grabbed the gun Tindol had on his lap. I turned around and fired at Tindol at the same time Benton did. Both of us hit him.

"Traxler came to, and started to get out of the car, but Benton shot him in the back. He was a pretty scared bandit after that, and begged us to get him to a doctor."

Forced To Accompany Them

Benton, who was on vacation when seized by the bandits at the home of his parents near Kingston, Okla., told how he was forced to drive the gunmen until his car ran out of gas, then forced to accompany them while they kidnaped Trimmer.

"I fired two quick shots, both hitting Tindol in the abdomen," Benton said in describing the shooting. "Then I fired at Traxler as he started to get out of the car."

If Traxler recovers, two states, Oklahoma and Texas, will fight it out for his custody. He is wanted in Oklahoma for the murder of a policeman, and numerous cases of armed robbery and kidnaping.

In Texas, he is wanted as a fugitive from the Eastern state prison farm, from which he escaped with Tindol and others.

Gun Battles

Traxler fell within police range Tuesday morning, when he daringly returned with Tindol to Verden, Okla., to pick up his pretty 30-year-old wife, Nell Traxler.

Two gun battles followed, during the second of which Nell Traxler fainted and was captured, and Traxler and Tindol were forced to flee into the Washita river bottom lands. They pierced a cordon of police thrown about the river bottom when they abducted Benton.

Mrs. Traxler, who predicted that her husband would never be taken alive, was hysterical when she learned he had been wounded and captured.

"Take him to a good doctor," she begged. "I'll pay. I've got the money."

Originally charged with violation of the Dyer Act, which she, supported by local officers, denied, Mrs. Traxler is now charged with harboring a fugitive from justice, her husband.

Funeral Of Mrs. DeVaux.

Hiss mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Doerr at St. Joseph's church this morning for Mrs. Joseph DeVaux of 318 East Sheridan avenue.

The pallbearers were Thomas Fletcher, William Grim, Paul Melvin, Emil Balieu, John Cunningham and F. C. Duff.

Interment was made in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Archie A. Allmon.

Blood poisoning which resulted from a scratch on his finger brought about the death of Archie A. Allmon, aged 54 years, of 245 West Falls street, highly respected member of the Lawrence County Funeral Directors Association.

Mr. Allmon, whose condition had been critical for several days, passed away at midnight in the Jameson Memorial hospital.

He had been a resident of New Castle for the past forty-five years and was always pleasant, kind and industrious. He won and kept the regard and friendship of a host of people in the community, both colored and white. He was a man that anyone having met once would always remember, as he had a pleasing personality and was courteous and honest in his business dealings.

For twenty-nine years he was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad, then, ten years ago he opened an undertaking establishment on West Falls street, having had some experience in the funeral directing business at Pittsburgh. He carried on very successfully.

He was born in Martinsburg, W. Va., January 24, 1883, son of Perry and Frances Houston Allmon. In 1912 he married Mary Jackson who survives. Besides his wife he leaves a step-son, Wilbur F. Jackson of Evanston, Ill., and an adopted son, Harry E. Allmon of New Castle, three brothers, William R. Allmon of Chicago, Ill., Frederick H. Allmon of Atlantic City and Harry E. Allmon of Johnstown, a sister, Mrs. R. B. Davis of Johnstown and a number of nieces and nephews.

He was a member of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church and the Colored Masonic Lodge.

Funeral services will take place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, 119 Elm street. The body will be at the residence from 12 o'clock noon Friday until noon Saturday when it will be taken to the church for the services at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Graceland cemetery.

Girl Is Burned To Death, Police See Murder Clues

Search For Missing Dishwasher At Inn Where Fire Occurred

(International News Service)

NEW BALTIMORE, Mich., July 22—Her skull crushed, 16-year-old Mary Jane Mohan, Detroit high school girl, was burned to death today in the fire which destroyed the Day Break Inn.

Police throughout the state were asked to search for a missing dishwasher who was not in his room when the flames were discovered.

Inn Manager Peter Steal said $150 was missing from a safe and a slot machine had been broken and looted.

The girl, staying at the hotel with her mother, Mrs. Blanche Mohan, and uncle, Wilfred Mohan, was found dead in the dining room wreckage.

week he never stopped battling for it. Twice, under dramatic circumstances, he took his case to the country over the radio. The first real occasion was at the Democratic victory dinner in March, when he employed the phrase, "now, now, now" as the time for judicial reform. A week later he returned to the radio with a defense of his plan and a plea for its immediate enactment.

But although his original plan is dead, Mr. Roosevelt had the satisfaction today of achieving by indirection what he sought to accomplish by frontal assault. He has made the country supreme court conscious, he has succeeded in reversing the trend of supreme court decisions against social and economic legislation, and he now has at his disposal one vacancy which can be filled by "a liberal".

tutional decisions in different federal circuits by insuring prompt review in the supreme court of such conflicting opinions.

Final Compromise

This was about all the opposition would agree to incorporate in the final compromise. Opposition leaders were willing to enact separate bills to increase the number of federal judges in specific districts, where the attorney general could show such increase in personnel was needed to handle litigation.

It was rumored, but without confirmation, that the administration would accept this compromise but later seek enactment of a separate bill to increase the supreme court membership to eleven justices. This proposal was not made a part of the peace agreement, which apparently will end the five-months battle in the senate over reorganization of the supreme court.

One hitch developed within the opposition ranks over the method of killing the president's bill. In his peace offer, Vice President Garner suggested the opposition enact a separate bill with their own program of judicial changes or take the president's bill, strike out all after its enacting clause and substitute their own measure for Mr. Roosevelt's.

Method Uncertain

If the opposition should decide to enact a separate bill, Garner agreed the administration would not resist a motion to "indefinitely postpone" the president's bill, a parliamentary move that would kill it outright.

Some opposition leaders, led by Senator Wheeler (D) of Montana, favored the Garner course. Others demanded the opponents insist upon their original plan to recommit the president's bill to the judiciary committee before undertaking enactment of any judicial legislation. Those favoring this course expressed a fear of some trick to revive the supreme court bill after their compromise bill is enacted.

Senator Barkley (D) of Kentucky, newly-elected Democratic leader, was said to have protested against recommitting the president's bill until after some legislation has been enacted to remedy the situation in the lower federal courts. Barkley said the administration was acting in good faith in agreeing to the "peace compromise" but had no assurance the unfriendly judiciary committee would ever enact any judicial changes if the president's bill were recommitted to it.

It appeared this parliamentary tangle would be settled within a few days. Both sides agreed to another armistice until Monday. By that time, the opposition was expected to decide its course—agree on a bill changing the lesser federal judiciary or failing in this, serve notice once more of a finish fight on the president's bill.

CORRECTION

In Wednesday's advertisement of The Chambers Motor Co., a 1933 Plymouth Coupe carried a price of $229.00. This was an error and should have read, $299.00.

RULES FOR ROASTING MEAT

1. Place roast fat side up on a rack in an open roasting pan.
2. Season with salt and pepper.
3. Place in a slow oven (300-350 degrees F.) and let roast until done. Lamb requires 30 to 35 minutes per pound for unboned cuts, and slightly longer for boned and rolled cuts.

FIELD CLUB WOMEN HAVE DESSERT-BRIDGE

Field club women were guests at their club rooms Wednesday afternoon for one of the series of dessert-bridge parties with Mrs. J. F. Perelman presiding in the role of hostess.

Dessert was served at 1:15 o'clock, and card playing occupied the balance of the leisure hours. Those winning prizes included Mrs. Gillis Falls, Mrs. L. P. Hauschild and Mrs. J. B. Waddington.

On Wednesday, August 4, the Field club women will again assemble for a similar function, with Mrs. W. E. Langan hostess. The same hours will be observed.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Wilson, of 801 Highland avenue today announces the engagement of their daughter, Martha, to Walter E. Heim, of Pittsburgh. Mr. Heim officiated as best man at the wedding of Miss Wilson's brother Stephen, who was married on June 30 in Circleville, Pa.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morella, of 301 Taylor street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anna Morella to Paul Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Pratt, of 913 Crescent avenue, Ellwood City. The engagement will terminate in a fall wedding.

HOSPITAL SEWING ENDS UNTIL FALL

Winding up a most successful season of sewing, a group of local women assembled in the Solarium of Jameson Memorial hospital on Wednesday, and aided in finishing up needed garments for the institution.

The hours from 9 until 12 o'clock were observed, during which time much was accomplished.

Meetings will be discontinued through the month of August, and will again be resumed in the fall, starting September 1. The hostess will be announced at a later date.

LE DEJEUNER CLUB AT MORGAN HOME

A delightful social function of Wednesday evening, was the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan of East Washington street, for associates of the LeDejeuner club, marking their bi-weekly meeting.

Dinner was served at the appointed hour, the table being atractively arranged with fiesta ware. Card playing ensued, with several tables of contract featuring. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Reiber and Mrs. J. J. Carson, received the unique favors.

The next meeting will take place on Wednesday, August 18, with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hoyland of the New Wilmington road, hosts.

SCHOOL FRIENDS HONOR CLASSMATE

Billy Ray Earl was honored Tuesday evening when a large number of his school friends gathered at his Highland Heights home to honor his birthday anniversary in a social manner.

Invitations were distributed by his mother, Mrs. Raymond Earl, who served in the capacity of hostess. Games of various types and music were the diversions for the 25 guests during the hours.

Mrs. Earl served a lunch later in the evening, and was assisted by Mrs. Edna Gibson. The honoree was showered with a large number of lovely gifts and a portion of the time was spent in opening the gifts.

ST. LUCY'S CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING

St. Lucy's church was the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony this morning, when Miss Ann Marie Russo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Russo, 116 South Wayne street, became the bride of Joseph Bosco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bosco, 504 East Lutton street.

The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and garden flowers, intermingled with ferns and palms, lending a colorful setting for the occasion. At 10 o'clock, the vows were exchanged in the presence of several hundred guests, with the Rev. Fr. S. Appolito, officiating. The single ring service was used.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white lace gown, made with long train, and long fitted sleeves with broad shoulder effect. Princess lines were noted in the high neck line. Her veil of tulle, was appliqued with satin and lace, falling from a crown in a long train. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Miss Janet Peluso as maid of honor, was attired in a blue creation with pink accessories, and her arm bouquet was of pink roses and blue delphinium. The bridesmaids were all attired alike in gowns of pink with blue accompaniments, just the opposite to that of the maid of honor. Their arm bouquets were of tea roses and blue delphinium. They were: Misses Angeline Russo, Nellie Cairo, Tillie Russo, Trenta Bosco, Mildred Russo and Mildred Fair.

Albert Pezone acted as best man, and those who ushered included: Albert Lateria, Roger Pezone, Francis Clause, Frank Merando, Edward DeCarbo and Samuel Aramando.

Appropriate wedding music was provided by the church organist throughout the ceremony.

A reception followed at King Umbert hall, and shortly after a wedding dinner was served with places being set for two hundred.

Later in the day the couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other places of interest. For traveling, she was attired in a navy semi-tailored suit, with white accessories and shoulder bouquet. Upon their return, they will live in their newly furnished home at 416½ East Reynolds street.

Both attended the New Castle high school. She is affiliated with the American Can company, and he is associated with the Johnson Bronze.

Mayberry Reunion

Saturday, July 31, the second annual reunion of the Mayberry families, will be held in the grove of Cascade Park. The occasion will be an evening affair, with dinner at 6 o'clock.

KWIAT-WEAVER EVENT AT 'OLD STONE CHURCH'

Quaintness was the theme of a quiet but most impressive wedding ceremony that is of interest to New Castleites, which took place on Tuesday, July 20, uniting Miss Lucille Kwiat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kwiat of County Line road, this city, and Orvan W. Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Weaver, of Grantsville, West Va.

The little "Old Stone Methodist Church" of Meadville, was chosen by the bride, for her wedding, attractively decorated with flowers. The Rev. Marriott was the officiating minister, using the single ring ceremony, at 3:45 o'clock in the afternoons.

The bride was attired in a white congo cloth tailored suit with white accessories, and a shoulder corsage of orchids. Her only attendant was Miss Katherine Wagner, of this city, who wore a sand-brown and white crepe dress. Her shoulder bouquet was of gardenias.

Frank Kwiat served the groom as best man.

Carrying out the theme of the event, the young couple received a gathering of friends numbering a hundred or more, at "Idlewood" a picturesque setting out in the country, that is most appealing which is noted for its natural beauty. The crowd mingled in the glow of lighted lanterns strung about the spacious lawn.

Preceding, and immediately after the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, covers marking for forty. The bridal table was centered with the traditional three tiered cake, topped with miniature figures, which too, featured an all white scheme. The same idea prevailed in other appointments.

Dispensing with a wedding trip until August 9 when they will take a two weeks trip to Canada and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver are residing for the present, at the home of her parents on County Line road.

The bride is a graduate of the Children's hospital of Pittsburgh, with which institution she has been affiliated. He is in the contracting business in this city.

An array of beautiful wedding gifts have been received by the newlyweds, further testifying to the high esteem in which they are held by their many friends. Both are well known in New Castle and surrounding vicinities.

CASTLE BRIDGE CLUB GUESTS WEDNESDAY

LONG LIVE THE COW!

FIFTY years hence, a writer assures us, the milk cow will be replaced by a milk-producing machine. This factory milk will be pure and not lacking in nutritive elements. It will be cheaper, too.

Science is truly marvelous, and there is nothing more astonishing than the number of plans which it has advanced for consigning the cow to oblivion.

A decade ago an English concern announced that it would make milk from grass and we were asked to prevision great loads of hay being driven into one end of an industrial plant and an endless chain of bottles, filled and sealed, emerging from the other. Later the soy bean was hailed as the source of our milk supply, and we were told that this legume of the Far East would make the cow as dead as the dodo. Then Roger Babson predicted that by 1950 we would be getting our cheese and butter from kerosene.

So far as can be seen, there is practically nothing between the old cow and extinction except a division of opinion among the experts on how it is to be accomplished. Another minor item is that science hasn't yet mastered the trick of slicing a T-bone steak from a fly wheel, extracting a rib from an oil can or making a Chinese bean taste like a beef tenderloin. Until science has all the answers, we will cleave to the cow, and yield our laurels only to the inventor who is able to produce synthetic pork chops at something under 25 cents per squeal.

GOVERNMENT ECONOMY STILL WAITS

Congress thus far this year has appropriated for all government purposes about $7,500,000,000, as compared with a total of $8,703,000,000 in 1936. Since the Budget Bureau had recommended expenditures of $7,834,000,000 this year, the allocation's up to date represent "economies" of about $300,000,000.

It should be remembered, however, that provision for paying the soldiers' bonus, amounting to $2,237,000,000, was made in last year's appropriations. Without the bonus, congressional appropriations in 1936 would have been about $6,500,000,000. It may thus be readily seen that this year's appropriations are approximately one billion dollars higher than those of last year, excluding the bonus allowance.

Appropriations for many departments this year show appreciable gains over those of the year. A third deficiency appropriation for unanticipated expenditures still remains to be passed. It is as yet impossible to compute with accuracy the total of this year's expenditures.

One thing, however, is sure. Whatever the amount proves to be, it is obvious that real economy, the kind of economy that would relieve American taxpayers of the tremendous burdens under which they are now struggling, has not yet made much headway in congress. Until the national legislators take a determined stand drastically to pare government expenses these can be no escape from the heavy taxes, seen and unseen, that are oppressing all the people.

BENEFACTOR OF HUMAN RACE

The name of Guglielmo Marconi will be recorded as not only one of the greatest scientific geniuses of all time, but as one of the greatest benefactors of the human race. He hit upon his epoch-making discovery while engaged in the military service of his nation. But its first signal employment was for the saving of human lives imperiled by shipwreck at sea.

The dream of world-wide communication without wires had come to many other thoughtful scientists before Marconi was born. It remained for this ambitious son of an Italian father and an Anglo-Irish mother to work out and apply to practical use the results of their pioneering experiments.

Like most great inventors Marconi was an idealist with an imagination which peered far into the future. He constantly visualized radio as possessing a mission for mankind. A lifelong worker for world peace, he was happy in the thought that radio was destined to draw the nations more closely together through increasing their mutual understanding.

If not all his dreams have come to pass, he made a marvelous contribution to the welfare and happiness of humankind. His mechanical genius is a matter for appraisal by the technicians. The faith, courage and persistence which brought success to his experiments can be appreciated by all.

Extraordinary as were Marconi's achievements, he did not consider his lifework ended. For him the word "impossible" contained no meaning. He sought new worlds to conquer. The improvement of television and many another development of his invention offered new challenges to his genius.

The thousand survivors of the Titanic who cried "We owe our lives to you" expressed only a part of the debt which the people of all the world owe to the memory of Guglielmo Marconi.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TECHNIQUE IN CHILD TRAINING

In guiding the child we need to make pleasant what we want him to do, and painful only what he never is to do or repeat. To train the child in right toilet habits, we get best results as we help him gain satisfaction from co-operating, satisfaction from performing properly. Many mothers naturally suppose that they can train the youngster by giving him pain, by spanking him when he is found wet or "dirty." But such measures practically never work. Instead, they make the problem worse, as a rule.

In the first place, the pain almost never follows the wrong act instantly and, therefore, does not connect up in the child's mind with this wrong act. On the contrary, this pain nearly always connects with what the mother wants the child to do—making painful what she wants him to do. Consequently she, by spanking him, renders him less ready to co-operate.

A good rule, therefore, is not to use any punishment in connection with elimination. Even avoid showing any anger at the child found wet or "dirty." Patiently set the stage so he will co-operate, and then warmly approve his successes. And don't expect too much of the baby. Certainly too much was expected by the mother of the two-year-old tot whom she wrote:

Tries Spanking

"I have tried spanking until she is so conscious of it that I have a time changing her . . . She talks very little, but she can make us understand everything. She calls me at night and she goes even though she fights. She has a dry bed three or four times a week. You see she knows enough to tell me at night. Why not in the day time?"

My reply to this mother was about as follows: "It is quite remarkable that your baby calls you at night. Be very happy over that and let her know you are. Tell her what a Big Girl she is. Go on setting the clock by day, sending her good natured to the toilet to keep dry, doing your best to win her co-operation. Your serenity and infinite patience will eventually win. I just know that you are going to enjoy early success. And good luck."

For your many encouraging words to me in your letters I am grateful to you. Also I welcome criticisms. Write me about any human problem, in care of this paper, enclosing a self-addressed envelope, with a three-cent stamp on it, and I will answer you as early and as well as I am able.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

The trouble isn't that we go so fast but that so many of us don't know where we are going.

Two birds building a nest may not KNOW what they are doing but they ARE doing something of value to their species.

But we proud human beings, so frequently busy ourselves with activities that are sure to destroy both our usefulness and our happiness.

The Puritans seemed to have little faith in unguarded human nature. They set up rigid restrictions. Knowing a man must not live for pleasure alone, some of them went mad on the subject and made pleasure itself an evil, an enemy. And, worse still, found pleasure in the condemnation of their friends' pleasure.

No bird, no reptile, no fish, no animal would set up as fantastic and distorted an ideal as man so often does. The animal eats and plays and mates and guards the coming generation—and sometimes even sacrifices himself to it.

Some human parents sacrifice themselves to their children, and some sacrifice their children to themselves. Some have children and continue to put themselves first. Some think so well of themselves that they bear no children at all... and live to regret it, though not to admit it. I have known spinsters and bachelors who have achieved a quiet happiness. But I have known no married and childless pair that does not touch a measure of bitterness and regret. They may think they dislike children, but in their hearts is a wistful curiosity about those children of their own who might have been but now will never be.

You may wonder what I am trying to say?

I am saying that children are arrows that we drive against fate and the future. Our only mortality on this earth lives in children. All else that we do crumples and disintegrates but the children go forward, bravely and defiantly, into that future that is hidden in the mists of time. And only through them can we know that we are going anywhere on this whirling ball.

A STORY

A judge in a Kansas town had failed to be reappointed. He became cashier in a local bank. A man presented a cheque to be cashed. 'I don't know you," he said to the man.

The man produced a business card and a lot of letters addressed to himself. "No sufficient proof of identity," said the cashier. "Why, Judge," protested the man.., "Ive known you to hang a man on less evidence than this." "That may be," replied the Judge, "but when Im paying out money, I have to be careful."

When a man runs for a political office he should be made to state the platform he favors. Of course, even some who do that forget about it after they get elected. Just needing the money is not a good excuse for wanting an office.

Good Taste

MUCH of my mail is from women who are short and inclined toward plumpness. They are anxious to attain, through their selection of clothes, the illusion of greater height and less breadth, especially at the hips.

First and foremost—women of this build should always wear what are commonly called straight-line dresses. And they should avoid such of this season's popular models as the full-skirted peasant dresses; the variplicated linen and silk skirts; dark dresses with light lacings about the waistline and hips; dresses with two or more front kick pleats. One such pleat in the back or the front of the skirt will not broaden your figure.

Women with such figures should avoid any dresses having horizontal trimmings or designs; also the new cartwheel hats and the exaggerated puffed sleeves.

An unbroken silhouette with vertical designs (if any) with the main accent near the throat and none at the waist or hip line will slenderize your lines and tend to give you height, if your tendency is to be too stocky.

Bonnet Has Difficult Task.
Politics To Be Hot Next Year.
Mexicans Advance New Economic Plan.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Columnist

THE MOST difficult financial task in the world is that of Georges Bonnet, French minister of finance in the Chautemps' cabinet. Bonnet was called back hurridly from Washington, where he had been French ambassador for a few months, in an effort to stabilize French finances. All sides agreed that, due to his past efforts and his evident freedom from political bias, he was the one Frenchman who could prevent the flight of French capital.

But French capital—which is bitterly anti-Socialistic (the Socialists say anti-social, rather)—has renewed its flight. Prospects of increased taxation and no prospects of repeal of social measures have caused the new fright—and flight.

Furthermore, fear of discriminatory taxation in the United States against foreign investments, or "hot money" (money that can be shifted from one country to another on a moment's notice) has caused French capital to start leaving the United States, too. It is going to London.

To repeal the social measures in France or to prevent the adoption of new measures—as the "200" who supposedly control France's wealth demand—might lead to a revolution. But without repeal, Bonnet cannot get his hands on the slippery money. Thus Bonnet's task is as hopeless as he thought it would be when he accepted the call to return to Paris from comparatively peaceful Washington.

A HOT YEAR AHEAD

This may be a hot summer, but nothing compared to what 1938 is likely to be.

We are speaking of politics, not the weather.

Pro-Roosevelt Democrats are out to oust anti-Roosevelt Democrats in the 1938 primaries.

Take Indiana for example. Senator Frederick Van Nuys has been opposing the president.

Gov. M. Glifford Townsend, a pro-Roosevelt man, emerging from a White House conference on rural electrification and other federal-state problems, remarked:

"Senator Van Nuys will not be renominated. The Democrats of Indiana would not take him. We could not nominate him if we tried. A Democrat known to be more favorably disposed to the Roosevelt administration will be preferred by the convention." (Indiana has the convention system of nominations, but the same condition will apply in the states with primaries.)

"The president would not be against dropping the senator but will not do anything about it."

But should Senator Van Nuys regain the nomination, the governor will support him.

Incidentally, it is presumed that Governor Townsend himself aims at the nomination, as a pro-Roosevelt man. He would have the aid of Senator Sheraman Minton, one of the most aggressive of the New Dealers.

PRODUCERS' GROUPS

Little has been said of a new Mexican law signed by President Cardenas. It authorizes the Department of National Economy to organize producers' associations. "The aim sought is to prevent ruinous competition on the one hand, and on the other to safeguard consumers against variable prices."

American interests are eager to see what can be accomplished. The problem covered certainly is a major one.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

WORK FOR SAFETY.

So far and so fast have our engineers and our scientists carried us in their never-ending quest for mechanical perfection that most of us grasp the full sweep of technological advancement since the turn of the century. Yet is must amaze even those most keenly aware of this constant progress, to learn that in one field, it may be said the engineer has almost outmoded death.

Years ago John Edgar Thomson, president of a great Eastern railroad, was so deeply impressed by the heavy toll of life among the railroad workers of his time that he left a large part of his fortune to maintain an asylum for the orphan daughters of men killed while operating trains.

Naturally, Mr. Thomson believed that the need for such a haven would never cease. He could not forsee that the day would come, as it did recently, when the overseers of the home he established would be forced to advertise for applicants who could qualify under the terms of the Thomson bequest. The advertising effort brought the institution just twelve replies.

No further illustration is needed to demonstrate that in railroading, occupational risk has been reduced from an ever-present threat to a mere phrase almost as empty of meaning as the corridors of the Thomson asylum are today empty of inmates. Yet the number of men engaged in the seemingly dangerous work of pratical railroading reached a total of more than 800,000 in 1935.

This virtual elimination of vocational hazard stands side by side with the railroads' enviable safety record of but one passenger fatality in two successive years, twin monuments to the industry and genius of the engineer.

TO A WET BATHING SUIT

Damp outer shell of loveliness
Inhabited no more;
Deserted now for fairer dress
You lie upon the floor.

Fresh from the wave she bounded in
So radiant and so fair
And left you, newer charms to win,
A cast off lying there.

Now heavy with the waters cool
Beside her slippers blue
Upon the floor you form a pool
That drips the ceiling through.

What charms were yours an hour ago
We smiled to look upon.
The warmth of her; the rosy glow
Of vibrant health are gone.

Deserted by your tenant gay
Here cold in death you lie,
Waiting for me to come your way
And hang you out to dry.

Julian Bache Gives Big Gift

New York Man Gives City Twenty-Million-Dollar Art Collection And Mansion

RECALL WONDERS OF CHICAGO FAIR

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 22.—Not many public gifts have been bestowed so unostentatiously as that of the $20,000,000 art collection Jules S. Bache, the banker, gave to the city recently. Tossing in his 5th avenue home for a museum to house it and providing endowment for maintainance.

O. O. McIntyre

Bache had his lawyer announce the donation several hours after he was on the high seas, headed for Europe to visit his daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Miller. The collection is one of the finest private selections in the world, comparable to those of Mellon and Widener.

The donner, a roly poly worldling with precise mustache and monocle clapped in eye, is a lookalike for E. Phillips Oppenheim. At 76 he is a lively patron of the arts, accomplished bon vivant and a striking figure at important first nights. Recently he was headlined as a tax evasionist.

For years the banker has been a citizen of the world, maintaining fully staffed establishments in London, Paris, New York and Palm Beach His select and private dinners are models for gourmets. He has, as much as any man of his time, enjoyed life to the fullest.

Interlude: I popped in on my dentist, Guy Campbell, again yesterday. We agreed as I settled in the chair that it was a wonderfully fine day, so fine indeed that he decided to yank one of the few remaining stumps. I came up bleeding and complaining! "I don't have any fun any more"—but we continued to agree it was a wonderfully fine day.

They were talking of the wonders at world fairs, especially the Columbian Exposition at Chicago. All in the discussion were around my age and most of them recalled artistic touches of architecture, marvelous ground planning and exquisite dome mosiacs. Which more than ever impressed me with the utter worthlessness of my mind. The only thing that impressed itself upon me indelibly at the Chicago Fair was a horse made of prunes.

Too, of all the philosophy I heard during boyhood, that which clings more firmly to mind was uttered by a Silly Joe who, talking to himself, muttered: "I get all I want to eat without work and still they call me crazy."

I have just seen a circular letter from one of the civic organizations touching on the subject of Communism. It is—to use the deb's overworked word—"definitely" an alarmist's epistle. It says Hitlerism and Fascism, whatever their faults, were organized to combat the Moscow menace. That Franco's battle in Spain is simply the honest people fighting the Red influence. And that Trotzky is now at our border for a purpose—and finally its time for the boys here to come down out of the hills with their squirrel guns. All very depressing on a sunny day.

Most of us are more unselfish than we think. An excitable fellow at times—O, well it was this winter if you must know—flared up the other day and shrieked something that lacked courtesy to a fair and lovely lady visitor. Both of us were immediately miserable about it. I slept badly two nights. Today I thought of sending flowers and did. But an honest analyzing flushes out the truth—that the gift wasn't so much to help the lady as to relieve my own state of discomfiture.

One of the cartoonists has a variant of the "Keep Smiling" sign in his studio. It reads "Don't Get Sore." I abhor grinners, so I like the new note. I lived more than half my life before I learned the value of silence under every attack, no matter how unfair. Retaliation gets nowhere. If one has been unjustly maligned, Time will do more to rectify the error than issuing denials and far more effectively and convincingly. One has only to wait.

Thingumabobs: Richard Watts, Jr. and George Jean Nathan have become cronies among the critics. Walter Chrysler, Jr. is reputedly the backer of several intimate and exclusive restaurants. Richard Bennett was once a pants maker in Logansport, Indiana.

No one tops Bugs Baer for cockeyed exaggerations. For instance, his recent crack about the Black Tom explosion and the cash settlements being demanded. Baer said that for his part, he owed them a nickel because the explosion put a head on a glass of beer he was holding in Times Square.

Speed Greatest Accident Cause Says Professor

Penn State Authority To Have Charge Of Driver Training Program

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., July 22.—The all-consuming American love for speed is the greatest factor in the cause of motor vehicle accidents and their resulting fatalities, Professor Amos E. Neyhart of the Pennsylvania State College extension services, now on leave of absence to have charge of the driver training program for the American Automobile Association, said today.

Yet Professor Neyhart, now at Penn State to give his pioneer course for instructors of safe driving, does not attribute these accidents to excessive speed. He believes that they originate in operating cars at speeds too fast for driving conditions—which may even be leisurely gaits of fifteen or twenty miles an hour.

Thirty high school teachers are taking Professor Neyhart's safe driving course this summer. When they return to classrooms this fall, they will have the most complete set of material with which to teach safe operation of motor cars to be found in the United States. Lesson plans are being developed this summer so that teachers may have regular outlines of instruction to follow.

Each teacher must also prove that he has been successful in instructing one or more beginning pupils in the science of driving safely.

FREE GAS AND POWER IS AIM OF INVENTOR

(International News Service)

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—Free gas, refrigeration, air conditioning and electricity for the home, and free power for automobiles, planes and machinery!

That's the aim of Otto H. Mohr, Concord inventor who is working on a series of units, actuated by light rays from the sun, which he hopes will eventually lead to free, or practically free commodities such as those mentioned.

Inventor Mohr has one unit which cools water, another to freeze while a third passes water vapors through an electric current, generated by the sun, to convert them into oxygen and hydrogen.

The 60 year old inventor claims his plant can manufacture sufficient hydrogen gas from a gallon of water to supply all the domestic needs of an average family for a month .

The first unit of Mohr's plant is a glass covered box of water about a foot square. The water is heated and vaporized by absorption from sun rays and then passes into a second chamber where acid is added to make the vapor more conductive.

Actuated by the sun's rays an electric generator separates the hydrogen and oxygen gases in the third unit.

Both the hydrogen and oxygen are then stored in separate tanks to be used for heating, cooking or other uses.

Charge Police With Bungling In Crater Case

Mrs. Crater Says, "Police Were Lax In Probe, Thinks Husband Was Slain

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 22.—Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine, who has been out of town, was expected back today or tomorrow to take charge of the investigation into the charge that police were guilty of laxity in investigating the disappearance of Justice Joseph F. Crater of the supreme court.

Justice Crater disappeared on August 6, 1930. His wife charged yesterday that he was slain and that authorities bungled the inquiry into his disappearance.

In a copyrighted story, the Evening Journal said clues purporting to show the missing jurist is alive and well in Mexico were in the hands of New York detectives. Mrs. Crater charges he was the victim of a political murder.

Food Handlers And Truck Drivers In Buffalo On Strike

First Pinch Of Food Shortage Is Reported In That City Today

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 22.—With 44 food warehouses and packing houses closed, Buffalo today felt the first pinch of food shortage as the strike of 2,000 truck drivers and food handlers for union recognition and higher wages continued.

The strike was called by the Wholesale Delivery Men's Union and the joint council of Teamsters but spread to packing and warehouse employes when Hugh Thompson, district CIO organizer, declared his organization would cooperate with A. F. of L. men "in the interests of the laboring man."

Over 1,000 trucks, ordinarily used to transport food, were idle as union pickets moved to halt shipments of food from suburban areas to Buffalo. Buffalo's meat, poultry, butter and egg supplies were confined to those already in stores. Many of these reported their supplies were exhausted.

Early strike settlement seemed unlikely as Samuel Licato, business agent for the Wholesale Delivery Men's Local, declared:

"We have made no plans for negotiations. This is a fight to the finish. Nor have the employers, banded into the wholesale food industry with Raymond W. Wattles as chairman, given any indication of seeking a compromise."

Bicyclist Is Struck By Auto

Chester Waddington Of East New Castle Suffers Multiple Fracture Of Leg

Chester Waddington, aged 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waddington of East New Castle, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital with a double fracture of the left ankle and fracture of the left leg below the knee, sustained when he was struck by the automobile of J. F. Paul of 619 Reynolds street, as he was riding his bicycle along the road at East New Castle, shortly after 7 o'clock last evening.

The accident occurred near the Calvary Presbyterian church. According to witnesses, the boy started to turn across the road in front of Mr. Paul, who apparently did not see him in time to avoid striking the youth, who was hurled into the air as the bicycle was struck. The boy stated that he thought the car was far enough away that he could cross safely.

Fiery Itching Skin Gets Quick Relief

Simple Home Treatment Proved It At Small Cost

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to stop the itching and torture of Eczema, Itching Toes, or Foot Rashes and other externally caused skin eruptions and that is to apply Moone's Emerald Oil night and morning and people who suffer from embarrassing or unsightly skin troubles would be wise to try it.

Ask Eckerd's Drug Store or any first-class druggist for an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil and refuse to accept anything else. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that a small bottle lasts a long time and furthermore if this clean, powerful, penetrating oil that promotes healing fails to give you full and complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded. Greaseless and stainless.

Battle On Court Proposal Brings Congress Change

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Whatever the ultimate outcome of President Roosevelt's court packing plan, it has accomplished one thing which undoubtedly was wholly unanticipated by the president, but which already has had a significant effect on the court plan and will have on future legislation—an awakening of conscience and patriotism in congress.

Accustomed to taking its politicians with heavy doses of cynicism Washington is not yet fully aware of the change which has taken place on Capitol Hill. Apparently the country at large is wholly unaware of it. The court plan's submission, with its subsequent debate may not have made statesmen out of all the politicians but it has brought to the fore some of the old-fashioned virtues which long have been lacking in congress.

Answer Own Conscience

Many Washington observers still believe opponents of the court plan are motivated by selfishness of one form or another; that the only reason they are opposing the president on this issue is that it is politically expedient for them to do so. Yet, the contrary is true in many cases. Probably not since the World war have so many of our legislators answered the dictates of their own consciences, even though they believed at the moment that they were signing their own political death warrants. Whether this last is true will not be known until an election rolls around.

It is a fact that the country has become hardened to the statements of politicians, so hardened that many refuse to believe there is such a thing as a sincere utterance coming from a politician. Yet it is true that no more sincere speeches have been made in the capitol in years than have been made by court opponents.

Excellent Example

The recent speech of Rep. Hatton W. Sumners (D-Tex.), chairman of the House Judiciary committee, is an excellent example. Sumners is little known throughout the country. He seldom talks in the house and only infrequently does his picture get in the papers. Yet he stands high in the esteem of his fellow house members and when he has something to say they listen to him. His recent speech had far more significance than the average person realizes, because Sumners typifies the average back-home congressman.

Sumners is a typical old-time southern Democrat, though he is not mired in the traditions of the past. He has a keen sense of right and wrong. To him the court plan is wrong. During his recent speech he revealed his philosophy when he told the house simply that "it ain't right." His old-fashioned expounding of the ancient differences between right and wrong struck a sympathetic cord in the house and there seemed to be almost universal agreement with what he said.

Another Indication

Another indication that conscience and patriotism once more are alive on Capitol Hill can be found in private conversations with senators who are opposing the bill. In such conversations there is no reason for sham and there is none. The court bill opponents believe sincerely that they are working to save the country from future destruction. They are aroused with a religious fervor, though not with fanaticism—the distinction is important.

With many of them the decision to break openly with the president on this issue has been a very difficult one to make. They have wrestled with their consciences and have come out on top, often with the knowledge that their political career in the senate probably would be ended.

Order Political Death

That it is not exaggerating to say their political life hangs in the balance is illustrated by one of the most cruel and brazen incidents which has happened here in many a day—the announcement from the White House steps by Gov. M. Clifford Townsend, of Indiana, that the political career of Senator Frederick Van Nuys (D-Ind.) had come to a close. This announcement was made by Gov. Townsend after a conference with the president, and presumably with his knowledge, on the very day that Senator Robinson died. It was notice to those opposing the court plan that political death faced them, if the White House has anything to do with it.

Amid the welter of hypocrisy and cynicism which makes up Washington the crusader-like attitude of many of the court bill opponents comes like a breath of fresh cool air from the polar regions after a week of Washington heat. It is too early to say what its effect will be on future legislation, but it seems certain that once the court bill is out of the way congress will scrutinize carefully what legislation it passes.

Members of congress have discovered that there is such a thing as conscience; that the old-fashioned principles of right and wrong can be applied to legislation; that patriotism is a wholesome thing, far cleaner than selling their votes for political patronage. It is even possible that a congressional renaissance has arrived.

Labor Board Is 'Traveling Court Of Inquisition'

So Declares W. J. Cameron Of Ford Motor Car Company In Address

(International News Service)

DETROIT, July 22.—Ford Motor Company executive William J. Cameron Wednesday termed the National Labor Relations Board "a traveling court of inquisition."

Speaking at the 52nd annual National Editorial Association convention, Cameron declared:

"Today the law has set up a traveling court of inquisition.

"One is sitting in Detroit now, acting as judge, prosecutor and jury on tis own charges.

"I want to speak now of the misuse of the press by public officials. They use that press to perform this legal lynching of a good name. They do this under the so-called head of news."

CANDIDATES SHY IN BUTLER COUNTY

BUTLER, Pa., July 22.—Lethargy seems to hold sway in Butler county's usual political beehive of activity, preceding a primary. Despite the fact that some of the best-paying jobs in the county will be open, the list is the smallest for a generation for this stage of a primary.

The county treasurer's office and that of sheriff have but two candidates each, all on the Republican ticket. Four years ago the sheriff field had 12 candidates on the Republican ticket and the county treasurer six.

Auto Overturns Group Escapes Serious Injury

While travelling towards Ellwood City Tuesday evening an automobile driven by Robert Baker, New Wilmington, overturned a short distance west of Castlewood.

According to Baker he was unable to round a very sharp turn in the road, causing the machine to leave the road and overturn, landing on its wheels in a field. The car, which belonged to Fred and Martha Baker, New Wilmington, received considerable damage.

Five occupants of the car, including Baker, escaped with only minor bruises and cuts and were a bit shaken up.

Marriage Business No Good In Gretna Greens

Because Couples Must Count Three Days Now When Love Bug Bites 'Em

Frisky little Dan Cupid, who has been enjoying an open season on everyone, now has his style cramped by Old John Law.

He had been having a gay old time, shooting arrows willy-nilly, but it's all over now. Old John Law, with no sense of humor at all, has closed up the Gretna Greens of West Virginia with this edict to smitten couples—"Ye must wait three days."

In that state the notice of intent to marry law went into effect June 11, following examples already set by Ohio and Pennsylvania. In the past six weeks the number of marriages in New Cumberland has decreased over 66 per cent. Just 184 couples were married in contrast to the monthly average of more than 300 previously. Wellsburg and Wheeling have a similar story to tell.

Until Old John Law clamped down on the practice, Mr. Cupid had been shooting an abundance of arrows with no discretion at all, and then gently but firmly pushed his Ohio and Pennsylvania victims over the West Virginia line, leaving them to sink or swim in the sea of matrimony.

State Crops In Fine Condition

Recent Rains Throughout State Did Crops World Of Good

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.—Recent rain in virtually all sections of Pennsylvania served as a boon to crops, the U. S. Department of Agriculture pointed out today in its weekly synopsis of weather and crop conditions.

Rainfall exceeded two inches in about three-fourths of the state and four inches in a number of southwestern counties, the weather bureau reported, during the rainy period cultivation was practically suspended, threshing was delayed and grain in shocks damaged.

Good Growth

"All crops made good growth," read the government synopsis. "Corn is tasseling and oats harvest is beginning in a few places. Haying was suspended.

"Potatoes are progressing rapidly, and offering a promising outlook, truck crops are doing well, and vegetables, in season, are plentiful and good. The few reports on the tobacco crop are not optimistic. It appears that the seed was not up to quality, and conditions were more or less unfavorable at seeding time, with the result the plants were generally small and late.

"Buckwheat is coming up and looking good, but it is too early to offer estimates of probable results. Recent reports of the Federal State Crop Service for Pennsylvania gives a rating to corn, winter wheat, oats and barley of 10 per cent or more above that of last year.

"Orchard fruits are much better than last year," the report said.

Methodist Church To Be Re-Carpeted

Plans Completed For Purchase Of New Carpet For The Mahoning M. E. Church

Before fall the Mahoning M. E. church will fairly shine with newness, as the final decision has been made by the official board to purchase new carpet for the auditorium, Sunday school room and the ladies' parlor.

During the past year the entire church was redecorated in the most becoming manner and now with the purchase of new carpet the entire inside of the church will be completely renovated.

A deep rich raspberry shade has been decided upon and ordered by the committee in charge, Mrs. Joseph Gilmore, Mrs. George Meyer and Mrs. J. A. Waddell, and will be put down immediately upon its arrival.

'Loafers" Top Weaver's, 3-2

With the score ending, 3-2, the Cottage Grove "Loafers", topped the Weaver softball team in one of the most exciting games of the season.

The game played Tuesday evening on the Cottage Grove field was a set back to the Weaver's who have been doing some very good ball playing this season. K. Evans was on the mound for the losers while Paul Gibson and Rung pitched for the "Loafers".

Negotiations are under way now for another game between the two teams which will be played on the P. and O. field on North Cedar street. The date will be announced later.

UNION CHOIR PRACTICE

Friday evening at 8 o'clock the union choir composed of choirs of the Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist churches, will practice at the latter church on East Madison avenue.

Music will be practiced for the Sunday night service at Cascade Park, August 1, when the three local churches will be in charge. Miss Jane Kyle is directing the choir and Mrs. Alice McClure will preside at the organ.

Full Program Is Being Held Today At Scout Camp

Point System Helps To Keep Scout Camp And Grounds In Good Shape

CAMP JOHN M. PHILLIPS, July 22.—What a day! In fact all this week the weather has been perfect. The atmosphere has dried out so that bathing trunks again dry between swims. The Slippery Rock is nearly clear and the water level is again near normal. This is the first day since the opening of camp that a full water program was conducted at the scout camp.

Mushball has taken the camp by storm, one series having already been completed and another is now under way. Last week's champions, the Cubs, were taken into camp today by the Bears, the latter being comprised of boys in Bessemer Troop 1. On Friday afternoon the champs will take on the staff for what promises to be a fast game.

The point system is proving very successful in prompting the scouts to take on projects for camp improvement. To date, the roadside fronting the main hall has been evenly graded. Eight huts have been stained, grass mowed about newly planted pines, spruces and redbud trees. Incidentally, the redbud trees planted in the spring are all doing quite well.

Other improvements to grounds and buildings by both regular workmen and boys are too numerous to mention.

Music Is Important Part Of Tabernacle Services This Week

Crowd At East New Castle Pavilion Hearing Allem-Miller Party

A crowd fillled the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle in East New Castle last night. After all had enjoyed the congregational song service the song "For He Is So Precious To Me" touched the hearts of many as Miss Miller of the Allem-Miller party played it upon the Piccolo bells. This is Miss Miller's first appearance at the tabernacle and her solo work upon the accordion, piccolo, bells, chimes, marimba and musical glasses is drawing much comment from music lovers. Miss Sara Allem who accompanies Miss Miller at the piano, is making her initial visit also. Besides her work at the piano, Miss Allem is taking the place of her brother Warren Allem in the vocal trio. Warren, who formerly travelled with the party when it was known as the Allem Trio, is now holding a pastorate in Keokuk, Iowa.

Each night Harold and Price, the two brothers, alternate in bringing a brief message from the Bible. Last night Harold preached concerning the healing of the slave in answer to the faith of the centurion. Some believed it was the best sermon they had ever heard him preach. Tonight it was announced, Price Allem will speak on the subject "The Biblical Description of the Hopeless Case."

Among the flowers that blossom out at night are the night-blooming cereus and the blooming idiot.

Gets Honorable Discharge From Naval Service

Pennsylvania Avenue Youth Discharged From Navy At End Of Duty

Henry Leo Bujny, son of Frank Bujny, of 1905 Pennsylvania avenue, has received an honorable discharge from the United States naval service, and is now at his home here.

While in the service, Bujny was promoted to rank of seaman, first class, and served on board the air plane carrier U. S. S. Langley.

Bujny enlisted through the local recruiting station on May 2, 1934, and was discharged on July 17, 1937. The U. S. S. Langley is now stationed at San Diego, Calif., and Bujny may re-enlist in a short time.

OFFICER IS FISH TRAINER

(International News Service)

WORCESTER, Mass.—Robert G. Runstrom, Worchester police officer is perhaps the only fish trainer in the country. All Runstrom does is appear on the wharf behind his cottage at Lake Singletary, whistle a few bars and the fish—all blue gills—line upp in military fashion along the wharf.

They have learned that when Runstrom appears and whistles his tune it is feeding time.

Gold Exports At $41,778,788

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 22—For the first time in more than a year, the movement of gold into the United States was reversed today when treasury figures revealed $41,778,738 of the yellow metal had been imported.

Between July 20 and the previous day, the government's $1,212,600,561 inactive gold fund decreased to $1,170,821,773.

It was a mistake to make loyalty a virtue. Now people can't quit a leader even when they know he is leading them into trouble.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Merging Sleuths Held Dangerous

Mrs. Roosevelt Opposes Plan Saying It Threatens Popular Liberty

HAVE TRIO OF DEPARTMENTS

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Bldg.
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Mrs. Roosevelt, in one of her recent "columns", takes sides against the frequently-urged merger of Uncle Sam's detective organizations, on the ground that a highly centralized set-up of this sort is calculated to become a threat against popular liberty in any country where it becomes powerful.

The "first lady" mentions no specific example, but one can't but think of Russia's OGPU and of stories of secret police abuses in Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy.

The point is extremely well taken. Considering the source of the suggestion, it comes with all the more emphasis.

* * *

MANY INQUISITORS

The United States has three major secret services:

1. The treasury department's.
2. The post office department's.
3. And, especially, the justice department's bureau of investigation—the G-men.

Most of the other executive departments do a good bit of undercover investigating, too.

Also several of the goverment's so-called independent offices have their respective staffs of inquisitors.

Ditto each and every congressional investigating committee.

* * *

DANGEROUS TO MERGE?

Congressional investigators' activities don't matter so much; their jobs are transient.

The justice, treasury and post office departments' outfits are the ones which, obviously, Mrs. Roosevelt has in mind. They are permanencies and, in the very nature of things, their tendency is to grow more and more potent as time passes.

Mrs. Roosevelt agrees that a compacting of certain federal agencies probably is desirable, but she suspects that it would be dangerous in the detective field.

So far as my observation goes—hurrah for Mrs. Roosevelt's suspicions!

* * *

SPY ON ONE ANOTHER

The work of differing groups of governmental "probers" overlaps unquestionably.

This causes mutual jealousies among them. They not only spy on outsiders; they spy on one another. Good; they also check on one another.

It is difficult for one of these agencies to go far wrong on a case, and "get away with it", with a couple of other agencies alert to pick flaws in its evidence.

And, each against each, that is their inclination.

If it is bad for convictions, at least it's a safeguard against injustices.

* * *

ON ONE OCCASION

I do not recall a valid charge of this sort against the treasury's or the post office's secret operatives, but I surely do recall one against the justice department's in the day o William J. Burns, as head of its G-men.

Those were the times of the oil inquiry, when senators' and representatives' desks were broken into on Capitol Hill, by G-men; and when "frame-up" accusations (subsequently admitted as perjured) were brought by the G-folk against Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana. They did not call them G-men then, but they were the same set-up.

Now, if all the government's secret services had been consolidated, at that juncture, under a single OGPU director, mightn't the outcome have been much less satisfactory to Senator Wheeler?

County Parole Officer Jack M. Dunlap, notes that there has been a steady increase in the number of desertion and non support cases coming under his jurisdiction during the past few years. When such cases are heard in court, orders are usually made requiring husbands to pay their wives a spicified amount each week. Formerly these payments were made to attorneys representing the plaintiffs, but of late years collections were placed in the hands of the parole officer on the theory that he has more time to keep in touch with the different situations.

At present Dunlap has about 125 such cases on his list and runs into all kinds of trouble in making collections. There are a great many husbands who bring the money for their wives to him regularly. They usually have no complaints to make. But there is another class who pay grudgingly, and others who will not pay at all unless they are forced. Such persons have all manner of reasons for not paying, one of the stock excuses being that they are not working or only working part time. If all means of collecting fails they are usually brought before the court on a process, but there have been few such cases since Dunlap has been doing the collecting. There are many perplexing problems in the care of children in connection with broken homes.

A scire facias sur mortgage has been issued by Hannah S. Keast, use of the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company against Joseph S. W. Smith, executor in the estate of John G. and Carrie Evelyn Smith. The action is based on a bond and mortgage given by John G. Smith on April 29th, 1906 to Hannah S. Keast for $1500. The principal of the mortgage is still due with interest from February, 1934.

So far this year it has cost the County of Lawrence, $17,637.30 to maintain patients in the different insane asylums of the state, according to figures compiled by County Controller Frank W. Hill. For some unaccountable reason there has been an alarming increase of mental patients during the past five or six years. Whether or not the depression has had anything to do with it cannot be definitely ascertained, but among the class of patients which the county has been called upon to keep, it is hardly thought that the depression has had any material effect, as few of the patients had financial worries calculated to unbalance their minds. There are few mental cases in which the patients or their friends are able to bear the expense, consequently the burden is thrown on the county.

In performing his duties as city and county sealer of weights and measures, James M. Rae and other sealers will no longer have to see if the weight of a loaf of bread is stamped on the wrapper. Under a recent decision of the Department of Internal affairs a new regulation has been announced concerning the wrapping of bread. Under the provisions of the weights and measures law all package goods must be stamped with the weight, measure or count of the contents, and in a number of communities inspectors have required that bakers stamp the bread weights, contending that wrapped bread constituted packaged goods. Due to the drying properties of bread and its rapid loss of moisture, there is a quick decrease in weight. In controversies with inspectors over the matter the bakers maintained that wrapping bread is primarily done for sanitary reasons, and that it was not, therefore a package within the meaning of the law. The department has now taken this view of the case and rendered a decision accordingly.

Leasing for oil and gas is still going on in Lawrence county, according to the records at the register and recorder's office. Yesterday five leases were recorded in favor of the Allegheny Development and Royalty Company. The leases were given by Louis Carson, G. B. Hoagland, Edgar McConnell and W. L. Munnell in Slippery Rock township and John T. Brinton in Shenango township. Two other leases given in Slippery Rock township by Chadwick Dean and Norman A. Perchke, were recorded in the name of A. F. Rehler.

Auto Inspection Period Ends Soon

All Motor Cars Must Have Been Inspected Before August 1

ARRESTS TO FOLLOW IF LAW VIOLATED

All motor vehicles must be inspected at official stations before August 1, according to the Pennsylvania motor police, members of which said today that arrests will be made of autoists who drive uninspected cars on August 1. Any automobile which has been inspected since May 1 is in "good condition", according to the P. M. P. The next inspection period will begin November 1, they stated.

According to reports there are quite a large number of motor cars and trucks in Pennsylvania which have not been inspected and it is possible that this situation prevails here. However, the motor police have pointed out that there is no reason that any autoist who uses his car should not obey the law and for this reason uninspected cars when operated on the roads will result in arrest.

From now until late on July 31, it is probable that all of the official testing stations will be kept busy. There has been a "bearing down" by state motor vehicle officials to allow as few cars not in proper condition for operation to be on the road. Cars which are not inspected properly and have a defect as a rule figure in accidents and the state motor body hopes to minimize accidents in Pennsylvania.

Pine Township Will Not Vote On Sale Of Liquor

GROVE CITY, July 22.—Although four townships in Mercer county will vote on the sale of liquor at the September primaries, Pine township, with seven drinkeries surrounding dry Grove City, will not act on the question. It is reported that an effort was made to include the issue on the ballot, but under the law, it can not be revived for another year.

When Grove City borough voted dry, after one year in which beer and whiskey was sold for the only time in the 55-year history of the borough, Pine township citizens approved the sale of liquor. Since that time the borough line has been ringed with seven licensed establishments.

HARLANSBURG

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The Harlansburg W. C. T. U. gathered at the home of Mrs. McKissick for the July meeting. Mrs. Louise Stoner led the meeting with the subject, "How Should Sunday Serve Man?" Paper was read by Mrs. Margaret Bruce.

Poem, "Three Days"—Mrs. Sara Burton.

Bible references by Mrs. Emma Cooper, Mrs. Jennie Eagleson and Mrs. Alice McKissick.

Paper, "How Should Sunday Serve Man?"—Mrs. McElwain.

Clippings from the Union Signal "Government House Rum Displayed in Washington," by Mrs. Pearl Rodgers.

Paper on the subject for the day by Mrs. Bertha Eakin.

"Our Faith" was read by Dorothy Johnson and the meeting closed with the song, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee."

Business meeting followed. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Helen Cameron; vice president, Mrs. Mae Locke; secretary, Mrs. Madge Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Blevins.

An excellent report from Y. T. C. at Myerstown camp was given by Dorothea McKissick. During the social hour refreshments were served. Place of next meeting to be announced later.

PLAINGROVE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The U. P. Missionary Society of Plaingrove were received at the home of Mrs. James Johnson Thursday afternoon, July 15. Devotionals were conducted by Margaret Peebles. The leader, Mrs. Sara Brown, featured the subject, "The Child in the Midst," with songs and readings by different members. Reports from the Presbyterial were given by Mrs. Frank Adams and Miss Isabelle Adams. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Susan Johnson, Margaret Peebles, Jessie Stoughton and Clare McMurray. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Vida McNulty the third Thursday afternoon in August.

HARLANSBURG MISSIONARY MEETING

The Presbyterian Missionary Society were entertained at the delightful home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bell of Ellwood City, R. D., for the July meeting. The ladies sewed on a quilt during the forenoon and at noon a sumptuous tureen dinner was served with a huge watermelon furnished by Rev. Bell for dessert.

In the afternoon the following program was conducted by the leader:

"One Woman's Influence"—Mrs. Sara Burton and Dorothy Johnson.

"Lesson Application"—Mrs. Leona Flack.

Poem, "God Walker With Me"—Mrs. Warfel.

Paper, "Egypt"—Mrs. Pearl Rodgers.

"Women of India"—Mrs. Madge Miller.

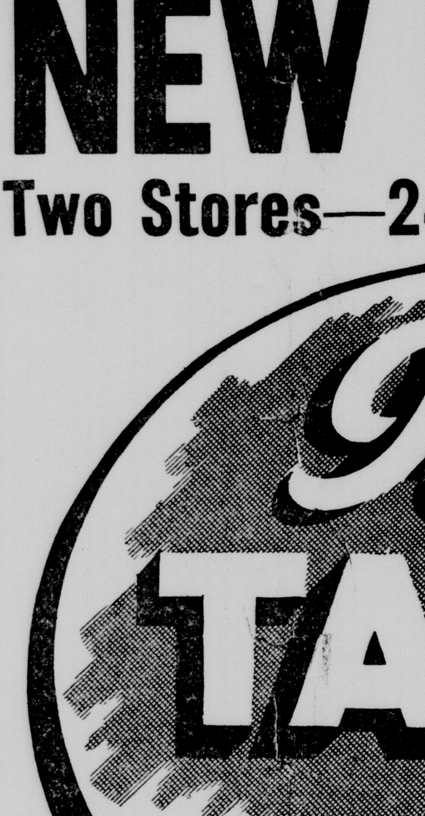

"Why I Accepted Christ"—Mrs. Ellen Bell.

After the meeting a delightful hour was spent exploring and admiring the beautiful lawn landscaped by Rev. Bell.

Lose Unsightly
FAT!
Quickly—Safely with WATE-OFF
Drugless Preparation for Scientific Weight Reducing

WATE-OFF is a compound of pure vegetable matter. WATE-OFF contains no dangerous drugs of any kind—no dinitrophenol—no salts or other harmful laxatives. There is absolutely nothing in WATE-OFF that can do you the slightest harm. Many users report that after taking WATE-OFF for just a short time they actually feel better than they have in years. Yet, WATE-OFF makes it possible for overweight women, and men too, to take off five pounds a week, or even more, without strenuous exercising and without starvation diets. In fact, as you take off weight with WATE-OFF, you not only LOOK better but you actually FEEL better.
The instructions say: Take WATE-OFF before meals, 3 or 4 tablets a day, then eat your hearty fill. Users say: "Results are simply amazing." Unsightly flesh frequently melts away like magic—and, without causing the skin to sag or wrinkle as so frequently happens with fast-acting but dangerous drug reducers.
You have seen WATE-OFF advertised in Pictorial Review, Physical Culture and other leading magazines at $2.45. Here now is your opportunity to purchase this same fine preparation for only $1.19, with our guarantee that if you're not satisfied with results you may return the empty carton and we will return your money.

REPORT MYSTERY PLANE ON OCEAN HOP

Vessel Reports Plane Sighted

No Information On Take-off Is Available At American Airports

BRITISH UNAWARE OF ANY FLIGHT

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 22—A mystery airplane, apparently attempting a west-east transatlantic flight, was winging its way over the ocean today with identity of its occupants unknown.

The British steamship Ranee, eastbound, reported to Radio Marine corporation it sighted the plane at 9:05 o'clock last evening (EDT), about 500 miles east of Cape Race. The vessel reported the plane's navigation lights were plainly visible, but that its identification numbers could not be distinguished.

No Information.

Metropolitan airports reported no plane equipped to fly the Atlantic was reported to have taken off yesterday. A similar report came from St. Johns, N. F., and the British air ministry, Croydon airport officials and all other British navigation authorities said they had not heard of any projected transatlantic flight.

Howard Hughes, motion picture director, was contemplating a flight to Europe, but at Newark airport it was learned his plane still was in its hangar. Pan-American airways said the ship could not have been one of the survey planes of Pan-American or Imperial Airways. Dick Merrill, reported considering a round-trip flight to Rome, was reported to be on the west coast.

Report No Trace.

Halifax, July 22.—A mysterious plane was reported off Cape Race early today but diligent inquiries along the coast of Nova Scotia—from Halifax to Cape Breton—failed to find any trace of it.

The weather was thick off Cape Race this morning. Early risers said they did not hear the drone of a motor. Life guards at Sable Island did not see or hear the plane, according to a wireless to the marine department.

NEW GALILEE

CHURCH WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Ruth Lewis, daughter of John M. Lewis, of West Main street, East Palestine, O., and William Dryden, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dryden, of St. Petersburg, Fla., former residents here, took place Saturday morning in the Lutheran church, with the Rev. W. H. Belschlager, pastor, officiating. The nuptial vows were exchanged at 11:30 o'clock in the presence of members of the immediate families and an assembly of intimate friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her gown of white point d'alencon lace over white satin. Miss Helen Ertt, bridesmaid was pretty in her gown of blue lace. Edward Jeremiah, of Youngstown, served as best man.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dryden and daughters, Mrs. O. G. Fairchild, of St. Petersburg, Fla., Mrs. Jane Cory, of Darlington, Miss Mayme Dryden of New Galilee.

A reception held in a local tea room supplemented the ceremony.

Visitor Drops Dead In Mercer

MERCER, July 22.—William W. Humes, 78, of Sarasota, Fla., dropped dead of a heart attack Tuesday evening at the Cummings garage, where he had gone to get his car. Mr. Humes had been in Mercer visiting his brother, George S. Humes.

The Humes family had resided in Mercer for many years, where Mr. Humes was in the hotel business. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter, Mrs. Effie Mansell, and Paul E. of Youngstown, O., and G. Walter of Sharon, Pa.

Funeral services were held today at 3 p. m. at the Miller chapel, conducted by Rev. John S. Duncan. Interment in the Mercer mausoleum.

LONELY OLD MAN STRICKEN AT MEAL

BUTLER, Pa., July 22.—Stricken by a heart attack as he was eating breakfast, Edward Roenigk, 82, of Saxonburg, dropped dead Wednesday. Roenigk, who lived alone, was found dead by the Rev. W. K. Geese, and a nephew, Edwin Schenkel of Pittsburgh, when they arrived at his home to visit him.

Two years ago Roenigk's residence was destroyed by fire. Despite his age, he rebuilt the home himself and was residing alone in it.

'Masculine Ego' Blamed For Idea That 'Woman's Place Is In Her Home'

Business Women Told Men Better Able To Endure Housework Drudgery

(International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 22.—"Papa, do the dishes, wash the clothes, scrub the floors and cook dinner while mama is at the office."

That was the picture of future domestic bliss drawn for 1,500 delegates of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, in convention here today, by experts on vacational issues for women.

Take it from Dr. Robert Hoppock, assistant to the national occupational conference of New York, the fact that the female is weaker of the species is all the more reason why she should be freed of the drudgery of housework.

"There is no sound psychological reason why women should cook meals, wash dishes, launder clothes and clean house!" he said.

"On the contrary, the vactional psychologist, were he free from the restraining influences of long-established tradition, and from his own rationalized desire to perpetuate the special privileges of the male sex, would be more likely to assign such work to men, since it frequently involves a physical strain which men are better able to endure than women."

Another speaker declared that "masculine ego" was the reason for the notion that "woman's place is in the home." Further cheering news for the delegates included:

Business opportunities are increasing, especially for experienced stenographers, beauty operators and laundry and domestic workers.

Mystery Beating

Providence police have revealed that Dorothy Lowe (above), maternity nurse formerly employed by the late Dr. George W. Webster, was severely beaten shortly after her employer, a noted obstetrician, was shot to death under mysterious circumstances.

Manager Battles His Way To Plant

Has To Stop And Take Punch At Picket As He Runs Gauntlet, May Face Charge

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 22.—C. W. Heppenstall, Jr., seemed little the worse for wear today after spending the night in the steel specialty plant of the Heppenstall company in Lawrenceville which he succeeded in entering only after battling his way through a picket line.

"Well, it's a nice day and the night wasn't so bad," was Heppenstall's only comment. General manager of the plant, he spent the night with two watchmen for his companions.

Patrick J. Connors, 29, a picket, who absorbed a hefty uppercut delivered by Heppenstall as he ran the picket gauntlet, filed charges of aggravated assault and battery. He said several of his teeth were loosened. The 900 strikers held a rally outside the plant last night at which C.I.O. organizers spoke.

Concert Tonight At Cascade Park

Event Will Begin At 7:30 O'clock Instead Of 8, It Is Announced

Several hundred persons are expected to listen to another band concert by the W. P. A. orchestra tonight at Cascade Park. Director Ben Shulansky announced that the event will get under way at 7:30 o'clock instead of 8:30 o'clock.

An entirely new program will be presented.

Gunman Slain By Canadian Police

Companion Wounded In Running Gun Fight, Wanted For Slaying Of Policeman

(International News Service)

NAIRN, Ont., July 22.—A posse of sixteen heavily-armed Provincial police today trapped two gunmen wanted for murder and, in a running pistol battle in a rock cut near Spanish river, killed Victor Gray, alias Szymonski, and seriously wounded Tom Ponarmarenklo.

The exchange of shots climaxed one of the greatest man hunts in the history of Ontario's northland. The scene of the battle was six miles west of Nairn, and 40 miles west of Sudbury.

The wounded man, also known as Shoke, is in the Espanola hospital and is not expected to live.

Gray and Ponarmarenklo were wanted for the slaying July 11 of Sergeant Fred Davidson at Sudbury.

New Chime Phones Being Used Here

Wall Box Is Eliminated In Newest Type Telephone Recently Developed

Chime telephones, in which the bell is located in the base of the hand-set type of telephone, and the operating mechanism is also enclosed in a small box at the base of the phone, are making their appearance here.

The new telephone eliminates the use of a wall box, and the bell has a little more agreeable sound than in the old type, although it can hardly be called a chime.

The supply of these telephones is limited at the present time, officials of the telephone company here stated today, but within a few years they are expected to be in general use, particularly in new installations.

Under the old style system, all the paraphernalia used in connection with the installation has been in a wall box, but is now contained in the cradle, or box which sets on the desk or table in the hand-set type of phone.

Governor Earle Appoints Board

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 22.—Gov. George H. Earle announced appointment of a three-member board of arbitration of claims, set up by the 132nd legislature to adjudicate actions growing out of contracts with state departments involving more than $300.

They were James W. Cullen, Sayre, lawyer; Jacob H. Mays, of Weiser Park, Berks county, and John G. Grelis, Philadelphia, civil engineer.

Time For Filing Rates Extended

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 22.—The time limit for utilities to file their tariffs to comply with the provisions of a temporary regulation pertaining to ready-to-serve charges, minimum payments and advance payment of rates was extended to Oct. 1 today by the public utility commission.

These tariffs, the commission ruled, must become effective on or before January 1, 1938.

Bridge-Playing Women Menace

Women Nowadays Would Rather Play Bridge Than Keep House

SOCIETY WILL SOON SHOW IT

(International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 22. The card-playing, bridge-playing woman is a "dangerous element to society," Mrs. Eudora R. Richardson of Richmond, Va., told the convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women today.

Never before in history have we had such a type as the card-playing woman, a phenomenon of modern times, she declared.

"We are developing a group of parasites who are injuring society. The card-playing type is a dangerous element in society."

"I think every one will agree that their grandmothers and mothers in comparable positions had domestic duties which occupied at least part of their time and made them producers, which these modern women are not," she concluded.

Glorified Money

Eunice M. Hilton, dean of women of the University of Syracuse, told the convention "we have glorified money instead of work well done."

Speaking on the problems of the adolescent, Dean Hilton declared:

"We are going to have to convince our young people that pride should be in one's job, whether it is a white collar job or otherwise, before they will be willing to take the kind of work many of them are fitted for instead of insisting on that for which they are not prepared."

Spend Honeymoon In Different Cells

(International News Service)

CLARKEBURG, W. V., July 22. Glenn L. Cottrill, 35, and his bride of less than a week, the former Miss Mable Lee Palmer, were honeymooning today — on different floors of the Harrison county jail.

The couple was married in a magistrate's office then immediately separated, Cottrill returning to jail to continue serving a sentence of nine months and his bride returning home. But Mrs. Cottrill attempted to communicate with her husband from the street and as a result she landed in jail.

Hornsby May Fight Action In Court Case

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, July 22.—Rogers Hornsby, baseball's storm petrel who was fired as manager of the St. Louis Browns, today indicated that he may take his case to court.

"They (the Browns) owe me $30,000," Hornsby declared. "That's how much I figure. My contract called for $20,000 a season and covered two years, and they handed me the slip after I had served only half of this year's schedule. I feel that I have a just claim."

President Donald L. Barnes of the Browns, who fired Hornsby, informed of the latter's threat of legal action, declared:

"Let Hornsby fight. We will welcome a court battle. But, I don't think he will go that far. We dismissed him for 'cause.' I am certain that Hornsby knows the full meaning of 'cause.'"

On European Tour To Honor World War Dead

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 22.—Headed by Harry W. Colmery of Topeka, Kan., national commander of the American Legion, a party of Americans was enroute to Europe on the Berengaria today on a mission to honor the World War dead. They will participate in defication next month of seven large war monuments in France, Belgium and England.

Others in the party included: The Rev. Perry Smith of Roseburg, Ore., national chaplain; Robert Chesney, of Denver, and Rabb Michael Aaronsohn, of Cincinnati.

EIGHT SWIMMING POOLS IN PITTSBURGH ARE ORDERED CLOSED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 22.—Eight city swimming pools and 15 springs were closed today on the orders of Health Director I. Hope Alexander because of the high bacteria count in the water. Most of the trouble in the pools resulted from chlorinators which purify the water, Hope said.

Card Of Thanks

To our many friends who expressed their love and kindness in our bereavement, we wish to thank them most sincerely.

WILL ESTABLISH LINES OF AVENUE

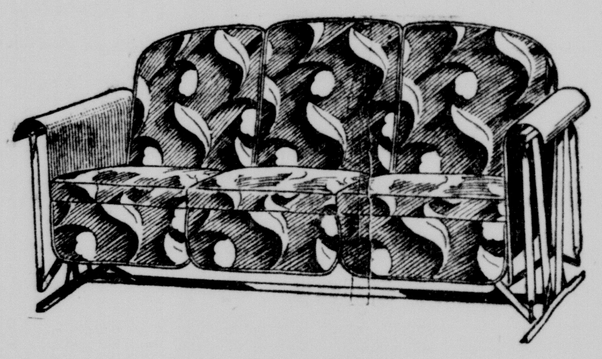

Council today instructed the city solicitor to draw a bill establishing the lines of Crescent avenue which may be ordained. The action was taken after a delegation asked that the avenue be ordained. All persons are in favor of the move excepting one party according to the discussion today.

Safe-Crackers Get Long Terms

Somerset, Pa., Judge Hands Out Salty Sentences To Quintet

(International News Service)

SOMERSET, Pa., July 22.—Two alleged safe-crackers were given near-life terms at hard labor in solitary confinement Wednesday by Judge Norman T. Boose of Somerset county, as he "cracked down" on a quintet of bandits who had terrorized Western Pennsylvania counties for the past seven months.

Robert Wheeling, 22, of Pittsburgh, formerly of Rockwood, and said to have been the leader of the gang, was fined $1, ordered to pay the costs and to serve not less than five nor more than 10 years in the Western Penitentiary on each of seven counts to which he pleaded. The terms are to run consecutively, making a sentence of 35 to 70 years.

Two Light Sentences

Bernard Cook, 22, also of Pittsburgh, pleaded guilty to seven charges of breaking, entering and larceny in Somerset county, and was given similar sentence.

A brother, Joseph Cook, 24, who admitted that he was implicated in five of the robberies, was sentenced to serve not less than 25 nor more than 50 years. Edward Meyers, 19, of Pittsburgh, implicated in only one safe-cracking, was given a five to ten year term.

Henry Rolfe, 16, admitted one robbery and was remanded to the Huntingdon reformatory by Judge Boose.

Tuesday, July 27, Date When Bridge Bids To Be Taken

Bids For New East Brook Bridge Materials To Be Opened Next Tuesday

Bids for materials for the new bridge which is to be constructed over Hettenbaugh Run near East Brook, will be opened on next Tuesday, July 27.

This date is correct. Through a misprint the wrong date was published yesterday.

The bid has been advertised by the township supervisors of Hickory township, the estimated cost to be about $4,000. Of this the Works Progress Administration will furnish the labor and the supervisors of Hickory township part of the materials. The WPA will do the work; the bids are for materials only.

ARREST MAN WHO CLAIMS HE'S FATHER OF SHIRLEY TEMPLE

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—Albert L. Miller, 38, a painter, was jailed today charged with falsely representing himself as Shirley Temple's father.

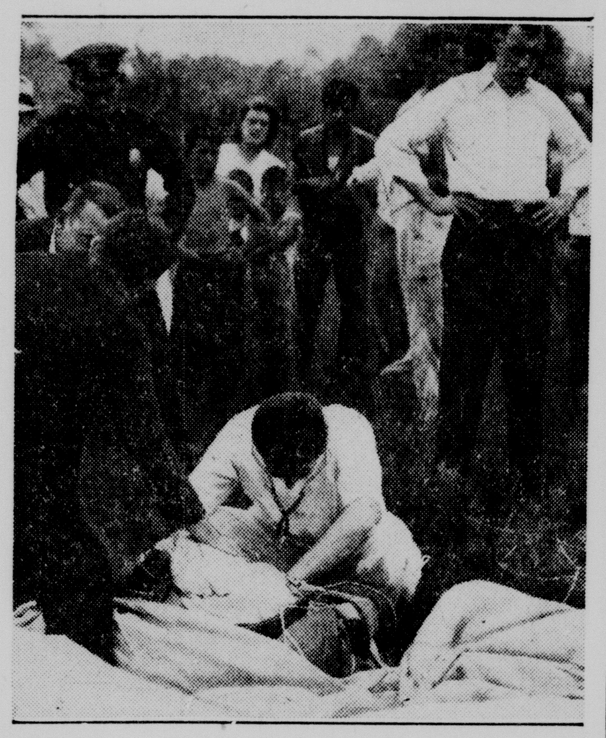

Miller walked into the district attorney's office and demanded that he be recognized as Shirley's father.

"She was taken away from me in Oklahoma eight years ago," he declared. "Look at my hands—and my nose—they look just like hers."

Investigators ordered him held for psychopathic examination.

It is easier to borrow from the fellow who has little. If he had much, it would prove him too smart to lend.

Death Writes the Local Color

Leslie Fulenweider, a fiction writer, wanted to do a story on the emotional reactions of a parachute jumper. He wanted it to be the real thing, so he went to Roosevelt Field, in New York, hired a plane, put on a professional jumper's outfit, and leaped from 2,000 feet. His first chute didn't open. The ropes of the second became tangled. Fulenweider crashed to his death. A doctor is shown examining the body.

Pennsylvania Auto Owners Pay More Tax Than U. S. Average

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—The tax burden carried by the average automobile owner was greater in Pennsylvania than the nation generally last year, according to figures made public by the American Association of State Highway Officials.

Collections of automobile license and other fees in the Keystone State totaled $35,331,000, or an average of $18.42 for each automobile registered in the state. In the country as a whole such taxes averaged only $12.75 per vehicle. Pennsylvania ranked second of the states in the total of such taxes and eighth in the per vehicle average.

Collections of gasoline taxes in 1936 totaled $49,383,000 in Pennsylvania, or an average of $25.75 for each auto in the state. In the country as a whole such taxes averaged only $24.50 per automobile. Pennsylvania ranked second of the states in the total of such taxes and twenty-seventh in the per vehicle average.

Collections of both license and other fees and gasoline taxes averaged $44.17 per vehicle in Pennsylvania as against only $37.25 for each automobile in the nation generally. Only 15 states had greater per vehicle averages than did Pennsylvania.

Loses Ticket, Hollywood Trip Off For Youth

Washington, Pa., Boy Gets As Far As Pittsburgh On Way To Film Fame

WASHINGTON, Pa., July 22.—Ten-year-old Robert Rubey was back home with his mother and sister here today, a lost bus ticket having disrupted his plans to go to Hollywood and become a famous film singer.

With $18 earned singing in restaurants here, the boy went to Pittsburgh by trolley car, planked down $16.45 for a one-way, half-fare ticket to Hollywood, bought a glass of milk and a sandwich and put away the rest of the money for food across the continent. But, Robert lost his ticket and was picked up at the bus terminal in Pittsburgh. He spent the night under the protection of a police matron and today was returned to his mother, Mrs. Jean Rubey, and his sister, Lillian, 13.

Robert said he expected to make $2,000 a week in Hollywood and he would have given his mother, a WPA worker, $1500, keeping only $500 for himself.

Insurgents Deny Loyalist Victory

(International News Service)

SALAMANCA, Spain, July 22.—Spanish loyalist claims that government forces recaptured Hill 660 on Madrid's western front were denied today in an insurgent communique.

All government attacks on the Madrid front have been repulsed with heavy losses, the statement said.

Massillon City Officials Called Before Board

National Labor Relations Board Investigating Fatal Massillon Riot

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 22—Intent on showing that "undue pressure" on Massillon, O., authorities to deputize loyal Republic Steel workers resulted in death of two strikers, counsel for the national labor relations board today called two city officials to bolster the board's case.

Lawrence Hunt, a board attorney said he would place Mayor Henry W. Krier and City Solicitor Richard B. Hardman on the witness stand as the board opened its second day of hearings on charges against the steel company that it violated the Wagner labor relations act in the recent strike of "little steel."

Hardman was on the stand for a few moments's yesterday to corroborate earlier testimony by the Massillon chief of police, Stanley Switter, that Carl Myers, general manager of Republic's Massillon plant, had urged Switter to employ tactics of Chicago police which ended in about a dozen deaths in the Memorial Day riot.

The Massillon riot occurred 12 days after civic groups and Republic officials had successfully urged Switter to deputize a number of company employes, the police chief testified.

Meanwhile, Republic's battery of attorneys revealed "that at present" they had no intention of presenting any witnesses.

"We have had no time to prepare our case and the board does not see fit to grant it to us," T. F. Patton, Republic's youthful general counsel, asserted. "All we hope to do right now is cross-examine the board's witnesses and then see what kind of case we can make for ourselves."

The board refused the corporation a two weeks continuance and declined to permit Republic's attorneys to make a preliminary statement.

A "calotte" or "calot," in case you run across the word in fashion circles, is a French name for cap, especially the type worn by priests. Last year the tiny skull cap type of hat was brought out for some very smart customers by famous Paris designers. This season there is an increasing importance in this type of headdress which shows the hair all around.

State Tax On Admissions To Theatres Ends

You can walk up to the box office of your favorite motion picture theatre today and from now on and plank down your quarter or forty cents without the necessity of paying the tax.

The state tax on motion picture tickets is off, but definitely.

For several years the tax on a two-bit ticket has been one cent; on a forty cent ticket it has been two cents. Over fifty cents, a Federal tax of one cent has been charged up to dollar admissions. The Federal tax is still on.

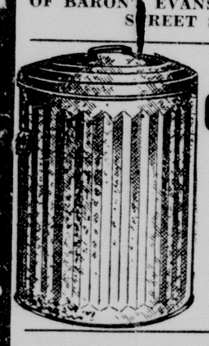

When the bill was passed Governor Earle said he "couldn't see the logic in taxing a kid for his movie admission." If he would just feel the same way about gasoline or groceries, or cigarettes, everything would be oke.

But its a start anyway. The tax on motion picture tickets is off insofar as the state is concerned and in the future you can see the "World's Greatest Lover" crush the heroine to his lips without feeling that you had to be taxed to see it.

Soak the taxpayer. Throw away the money like a drunk sailor. Call the taxpayer immoral if he tries to hold out a little.

Ruth Hanna Will Receive Highest Girl Scout Award

Local Girl Will Be Given Golden Eaglet At Day Camp's Closing

News is today received that another New Castle Girl Scout will receive that distinguished and highest award of scouting, the Golden Eaglet, it will go to Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hanna, of 305 Northview avenue, on Tuesday afternoon, July 27, at an impressive presentation service at Cascade Park.

Present plans are to have the ceremony at about 3:15 p. m. at the Cascade Park island. All the troops of New Castle have been passing five days a week at the Park attending day camp and the Golden Eaglet presentation will mark the climax and close of this daily encampment. In case of rain the ceremony will take place the following day, Wednesday.

As the closing of day camp will be observed as visitor's day also, when guests will be invited to watch the work of each unit, it is an occasion doubly appropriate for the Golden Eaglet ceremony.

Ruth Hanna, who was graduated from New Castle high school last January, received her scout training in Troop 7 of which Mrs. George Ferver is captain. She is a sister of Wanda Hanna who received the Golden Eaglet in the spring.

A recent inventory of the Canadian Royal Mounted police disclosed that more of them are "mounted" on automobiles than on horses at the present time.

Wilfred A. Gibson Wins State Contest

Local Boy's Essay Chosen As Winner Of State V. F. W. Contest

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—Executives of the V. F. W. auxiliary have been notified that Wilfred Alan Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gibson, of Wurtemburg Heights, has been named the winner of a state-wide essay contest conducted in various high schools of the state. His essay has now been entered in the national finals, the winners of which will be determined late in August.

His essay was written on the subject, Permanent Peace for America, and was selected as the winning theme of the local high school and later was the first winner of the four county V. F. W. council.

On Monday evening, August 2, he will be presented the state award by Mrs. Blanche Smith, of Pittsburgh, chairman of the state essay contest. Others who will participate in the presentation program are: Mrs. Margaret Armstrong, of Pittsburgh, past national president; Mrs. Twila Bolt, of Sharon, department president; and Mrs. Ellen Walters, of Pittsburgh, department secretary.

The meeting on August 2 will be the regular meeting of the auxiliary and will take place at their hall in Fourth street.

Funeral Services For Nonagenarian

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—Funeral services for John Maloney, aged 94 years, whose death occurred on Tuesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ann Jones, Canton, O., were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock from the St. Agatha Catholic church with Rev. Fr. Robert Wilkey officiating.

Having resided in the Ellwood vicinity for the past 55 years, Mr. Maloney was widely known and respected. He was born in Ireland.

He is survived by the following children: James Maloney and Mrs. Mary Grossman both of Ellwood City, Mrs. George Kay of Detroit and Mrs. Ann Jones of Canton, O. Six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren also survive.

Interment was made in the St. Agatha cemetery.

Rev. Jos. B. Brown Goes To Donora

ZELIENOPLE, July 22—Rev. Jos. B. Brown, who has been pastor of the United Presbyterian church here for the past eight years has resigned as pastor here, and will leave early in August for Donora, where he has accepted a charge at the First U. P. church there.

A congregational meeting will be held next Wednesday evening in the church when his resignation will be acted on by the congregation, and he will likely be released to take up the new field. The congregation there is a large one, and his field of work will be a much larger one than here. It is one of the largest congregations in Donora.

Missionary Group Has Many Guests

Mrs. A. L. Varner Hostess To Lilyville Lutheran Missionary Society

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—Assembling at the home of Mrs. A. L. Varner on the Ellwood-Zelienople road for the regular July session, members of the Women's Missionary society of the St. Mark's Lutheran church of Lilyville were received in a welcome manner.

There were seven special guests: Mrs. John Nagel of Beaver, Mrs. Henry Druschel, Mrs. Charles Foreman, Mrs. Pearl Bingle, Mrs. Henry Hall, Mrs. Elmer Moyer and Mrs. John Nevin, all of this vicinity.

Quilting was the principal pastime of the day with the group enjoying an appetizing tureen dinner served at noon by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Edward Daufen, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Smith.

The opening devotional service was in charge of Mrs. Daufen and the president, Mrs. Edward McKenna, had charge of the business meeting with plans being made for society happenings.

On Wednesday, August 18, the next meeting of the organization will take place and the place of the meeting will be announced.

Citizens' League Wants Sewerage

Franklin Township Residents Want Townships To Secure W. P. A. Sewerage Project

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—The Citizens' league of Franklin township, a most active civic organization, want sewerage for the Frisco, Knox and North Sewickley communities. In preparation for awakening interest in this plan, a special meeting of the league was held on Tuesday evening at the firemen's hall, at Frisco, with a good representation of residents present.

Arthur Milnes is chairman of the movement and Paul Thornhill and Lewis Wimer are vice chairmen.

It is the desire of the league that the township secure a WPA project for a sewerage. Herbert Rice and Lewis Wimer were appointed as a committee to completely investigate the condition and to obtain the cost and materials that would be required to install a satisfactory system.

Members of the league decided to hold a meeting every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the firemen's hall until some action is taken concerning the problem.

Castlewood Club Has Tureen Dinner

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—Assembling at Ewing park last evening members of the Castlewood club enjoyed a sumptuous tureen dinner served by Mrs. Forrest Powell, who was hostess to the group.

Following the dinner the 21 guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Forrest Powell on Line avenue where four tables of bridge whiled away the hours in a pleasant manner. Mrs. William Herge, Mrs. Henry Seetch, Lester Treese and Dal Buquo were the prize winners.

On Wednesday evening, August 11, the club will be guests at a tureen dinner at the home of Mrs. William Herge on Todd avenue.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

Miss Georgia Nuttall of Pittsburgh is the house guest during July and August, of Miss Maggie Hays of Wurtemburg.

Miss Katherine O'Connell of Pittsburgh, is spending several weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rapp of Wurtemburg Heights.

The many friends of Hanford Smith of Pleasant Hill, will be sorry to learn that he suffered a painful injury to his eye. He is receiving treatment in a Pittsburgh hospital and his condition is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Willmer and daughter, Edith, and son, Joe, of McKeesport, have returned home after spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Willmer and family, of Marion township.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Rothner and daughters, Marjorie and Ellen, of Newcomerstown, O., have arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rothner and family, of Perry township, for a week's stay.

Clover Farm Picnic Is Grand Success

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22—Scores of local people motored to Rock Springs park, Chester, W. Va., on Wednesday, where they attended the annual Clover Farm picnic, which was most successful in every detail.

This district includes the Ellwood, New Castle and Beaver valley stores and hundreds of people took advantage of the fine weather to attend the gala evnt.

Ira P. West of Ellwood, Bill Binsley and Earl Gillnes of New Brighton had charge of the sports for the children and adults and they left no detail incomplete to make the entertainment a long to be remembered feature.

Many local people were presented with lovely prizes. Trapeze artists performed during various parts of the day, adding to the excitement and thrill of the picnic. Swimming, dancing and many of the other park attractions were free for the "picnickers" complimentary of the company.

Community Picnic Plans Progressing

Annual Event To Be In Form Of An Exposition; Honus Wagner To Arrange Ball Game

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—The community picnic which is scheduled for Saturday, August 21, is shaping up to be in the form of a real exposition. All stores will remain open until noon with activities for the picnic to start at 12 noon.

Special free acts will be given every two hours by the best professional talent that can be obtained. It will be a merry day for the kiddies as the committee in charge will give plenty of bicycles away and the merry-go-round, airplane loop, ferris wheel and pony ride are being brought in especially for the kiddies.

Honus Wagner, old time Pirate manager, was in Ellwood yesterday to complete plans for the baseball attraction for baseball fans on that day.

Receive Word Of Brother's Death

Clarence P. Falen, Brother Of Local Men, Dies In Veterans' Hospital

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—Martin Falen, Robert Falen and Thomas Falen, all of this city have received word of the death of their brother, Clarence P. Falen, of Philadelphia, whose death occurred in the Veterans' hospital, at Castle Point, N. Y., after an illness of about four months.

Mr. Falen was 39 years old and had been employed by the Philadelphia school system for the past 17 years.

In addition to his brothers, he is survived by his wife, Helen, and three sons, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Haddon Heights, N. Y., and Mrs. Sarah Byers, Oil City.

The funeral services will be held from the late home in Philadelphia, on Friday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, with interment in a Philadelphia cemetery.

Ellwood Defeats Farrell Team 6-3

American Legion Team Winner Of Series With Farrell; Will Play Freeport Today

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—The American Legion Junior baseball team advanced a step farther in the national eliminations when they defeated the Farrell team by the decisive score of 6-3 in the last of a series of games on Wednesday afternoon at Bessemer, a neutral field.

Ellwood now advances in the league and this evening will meet the Freeport team in a series of three games. The game tonight will be played at Ewing Park. Interest is at a high pitch in this city and a record crowd is expected to witness the game tonight.

Greco, Turner, Snare, Hommer and Newton scored the runs for the locals with Newton coming through with two runs. Stiftinger was the leading player of the Farrell players.

TELLS OF HER QUICK RELIEF FROM SOUR, UPSET STOMACH

Attractive Young High School Girl Says A Few Weeks Treatment Of Vendol, The New Root, Herb And Alkaline Medicine Relieved Nervousness, Dizzy Feeling, Indigestion And Other Troubles Due To Constipation.

MISS RHETA MORALL

It anyone who reads this needs a reliable medicine to relieve stomach disorders, sluggish liver or to quiet the nerves, because constipation has a grip on them, they should not delay seeing the Vendol Man at New Castle Drug Co., where he is introducing this medicine, and let him explain all about it and how it is doing so much good in New Castle and the surrounding neighborhood.

Read the experience of Miss Rheta Morall of 23 Lincoln Ave., Youngstown, graduate of Rayen High School, who says:

"My food digested poorly, seemed to lay heavy in my stomach, turn sour, ferment and fill me with gas. The gas pressed around my heart so bad that to climb stairs caused hard breathing and palpitation. I often had to stop to catch my breath.

"I felt bilious, tongue was coated, had headaches and spells of dizziness. I had tried various medicines but couldn't tell they helped me much, therefore, when Vendol made me feel so much better, I knew it was a superior remedy and I could feel the improvement day by day.

"Vendol completely relieved the gas and nausea, my food seems to digest without leaving any sign of sourness. This put an end to the shortness of breath and palpitation and my nerves have calmed down so that I enjoy sound, restful sleep.

"I haven't had a dizzy feeling since Vendol relieved my constipation and gace me such a thorough and pleasant cleansing and I think that Vendol and Vendol laxative tablets are the best medicine anyone could take. I do not hesitate to recommend them to anyone who needs the same relief I got."

Learn all the plain, truthful facts about this great Root, Herb and Alkaline Medicine. Come to New Castle Drug Co., 35 E. Washington St., ask for me, the Vendol Man. I am here every day and will explain how Vendol will help you. New Castle Drug Co., 24 N. Mill St., and all other druggists in this city and nearby towns sell Vendol.

Visiting Day At Lutheran Home Being Planned

A program will be given at 2:30 in the afternoon when there will be special music and speaking and the home will be open for inspection. The Home is supported by the Pittsburgh Synod of the Lutheran church, and this is the 30th anniversary, the home being started 30 years ago with a mucn smaller building. There are now 52 residents in the family, with Mrs. F. W. Richter in charge for the past three years.

Friends and relatives of the home are urged to visit them on this day, they looking forward to this time with much enjoyment.

The home is a fine cool place and is beautiful with flowers and shrubbery.

Polyanna Club Plans Corn Roast

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—Mrs. William Cowan of New Brighton, Miss Virginia Houk and Dale Cunningham of Ellwood City were guests of the Polyanna club, who were entertained in a pleasing manner on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. G. Denniston of Hazel avenue.

After a business period, an amusing period of games and contests followed with prizes going to Mrs. E. C. Wilson and Mrs. Lewis Kistner. The hostess' daughters, Misses Edith and Ruth Denniston, served the guests a palatable luncheon.

Plans were formulated to hold a corn and wiener roast at Ewing Park for members of their families and friends during the corn season.

Mrs. Ellis Guy extended an invitation to the group to meet at her home in Wampum avenue for the next meeting on Wednesday, August 18.

Mrs. Robert Lutz Is Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22—Members of the L. W. L. club were guests of Mrs. Robert Lutz of the Ellwood-New Brighton road, when they assembled at her home on Wednesday afternoon for the usual meeting.

At 1 o'clock the guests were served a cooling luncheon by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Fern Lutz.

Two tables of 500 occupied the attention of the group through the afternoon and lovely prizes were awarded to Mrs. James Hice and Mrs. Iva Rudge for high scores.

On Wednesday afternoon, August 12, the members will be guests of Mrs. Amy LeRoy of the Ellwood-New Brighton road.

Vacation School Concludes Term

ELLWOOD CITY, July 22.—The daily vacation Hungarian Bible school that has been held for the past several weeks at the Magyar Presbyterian church of Ellport concluded a most successful term on Tuesday.

From 9 until 12 o'clock the school was held each week-day morning excepting Saturday. Bible memory work and Bible stories were the principal things that the children were taught.

The school was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Andrew Nagy, and was attended by a number of the members of the Sunday school.

A picnic dinner marked the closing day as a happy occasion. In the afternoon, Rev. Nagy directed an enjoyable hour of group games on the church lawn.

Concealed Passageways In Former Post Office Building Being Altered

When workmen have completed the task of turning the old post office building at North and Mercer streets, into a handsome structure to house the free public library, all interior resemblance of its ever being a postal station will have been removed.

At present work is being done on the parts of the building which were known only to the government postal inspectors. The iron ladders, stairways and lookouts, which were built behind the walls of the postal workroom and in various other parts of the building are being removed or remodeled.

One of the shafts up which the inspectors formerly would climb, hand over hand, up an iron rung ladder attached to the side of the wall, to reach one of the lookouts, is being remodeled. This is being turned into a book-lift, or "dummy waiter" for the stacks of books which need be transported from floor to floor.

Behind the walls of the main lobby, a pair of winding iron stairs lead from the basement of the building to the roof. These steps although not visible to the general public, were used many times when the old post office occupied the building.

These iron steps will also be remodeled and permitted to remain in the plan of the new structure. In their remodeled form the steps will lead from the main floor of the library to one of the workrooms in the basement, and will be for the use of the library staff.

Another of the secret ladders was behind the walls of the postmaster's office, in the left front corner of the building. This ladder has already been torn out by the workmen and will have no part in the completed structure.

One of the large vaults which was used by the postal workers to store stamps and supplies will be retained for the use of the library. This vault is located on the main floor and will be readily accessible from all departments of the library.

The lookout posts which were hidden behind the walls and above the heads of the workers have all been torn out, and the wooden grills, through which the inspectors peered have been removed and the places in the wall bricked shut.

Sanitation And Garbage Men Are Quite Particular

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 22.—A rose by any other name would smell as sweet.

Delicate suggestions by the city's street cleaners that they would prefer to be called G-men (the "G" for garbage) or S-men (the "S" for sanitation), today drew this comment from Sanitation Commissioner William F. Carey:

"I don't care what they call themselves as long as they collect the garbage."

BOY IS DROWNED AT LAKESIDE CAMP

BUTLER, Pa., July 22.—John Patterson Adair, 15-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. Raymond G. Adair of 712 East Brady street, dropped dead as he entered Lake Erie off the beach at the Great Lakes camp late Tuesday.

Acute dilation of the heart, which could have been caused by shock, fright or exertion caused death, according to Dr. Charles R. Leone, deputy coroner, who said an autopsy failed to reveal any water in the lungs.

Little "TVAS" In U. S. Are Opposed

Ohioan Seeks Flood Control And Not Power Development

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The administration's plan to set up little "TVA's" in various sections of the country was vigorously opposed before the house rivers and harbors committee Wednesday by Karl S. Dixon, secretary of the committee on flood control of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

He declared that Ohio wants flood control and is fearful that the administration's regional planning program would put power development first.

"We in the Ohio valley oppose any legislation which will not put flood control first and in which flood control and navigation are merely a constitutional subterfuge for securing enactment of a bill and carrying out other purposes," said Dixon.

"It is quite evident that generation of hydro-electric power with its distribution through government and cooperative agencies, is one of the things uppermost in the minds of the sponsors of both the Rankin and Mansfield bills. We insist that protection of life and property in the Ohio valley shall come first."

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Mrs. Grace Elliott, lecturer and author, scouts the notion that married women should not accept jobs because they might displace other workers:

"The oversupply of labor cannot be solved by making it a sex problem."

Alienation Award Reversed By Court

(International News Service)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., July 22.—Whether or not James Edgar of Detroit, whose $35,000 alienation of affections judgment against Lewis E. Mallory, 3rd, Pennsylvania oil heir, was reversed here yesterday by the State Supreme Court, will continue to press the charges could not be learned Wednesday.

Edgar, who charged Mallory had stolen the affections of his wife, the former Kathryan Crawford, filed suit last year in the Dade Circuit Court in Miami, asking $300,000 damages.

The jury awarded Edgar $35,000 judgment after listening to sensational testimony for two weeks.

Edgar could not be located for comment on his future plans in connection with the case.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

AROUND CITY HALL

Council has decided to purchase a rebuilt fire truck in order that the fire-fighting equipment of the city be maintained at as high a standard as possible. According to recent councilmanic action the apparatus will not in cost exceed $5,500. Prior to one day before the blaze that wiped out the Murphy store, St. Cloud and Graham buildings several pieces of apparatus were in the motor repair shop. Fortunately they were returned to service and were available to use against the flames.

City detectives have not yet abandoned hope of discovering who stole a considerable quantity of copper wire from Cascade park between the time the park closed last fall and the opening this summer. Several days ago a trio of young boys was taken into custody but proved to the satisfaction of police officials they had only taken about 30 feet of wire that they sold for a small sum. However, relative to the big quantity taken it is believed that the amount taken netted the alleged thieves a neat sum and someone who knew the value of the wire was concerned in the theft.

Three-Year Old Slaying Case Being Revived

Former School Head Is Being Accused Of Assault With Intent To Murder

(International News Service)

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 22.—Against the backdrop of an unsolved campus murder, two elderly men faced each other in a drama-ridden trial wherein one oldster accused the other of assault with intent to murder.

The accused is Thomas E. Elder, 65, former dean of the Mt. Hermon School for Boys. His accuser is S. Alan Norton, 71, former school cashier. Both were faculty members at the time that a mysterious assassin carefully placed a shotgun at the window of the study where youthful headmaster Dr. Elliott Speer sprawled comfortably in a leather chair, a favorite volume in his lap.

Headmaster Slain

One blast from the shotgun, the tinkle of broken glass, the patter of the assassin's footsteps . . . and, inside the study, Headmaster Speer lay dead.

That was three years ago, on the night of September 14, 1934. Norton now charges that on May 6 last Elder, armed with a shotgun, accosted him outside the Norton garage. Norton fled into his home. Elder, he said, ducked out from the garage shadows and made his getaway.

Elder, claiming he was at a New Hampshire hotel at the time, flatly denies Norton's allegations. In this he is backed up by his wife who is slated to testify in his defense.

Also called as a defense witness, to relate alleged events dating back before the headmaster's slaying, is Miss Evelyn Dill, former secretary t Doctor Speer. At a preliminary hearing into Norton's charges, Speer admitted boring a hole in the wall separating his office from that of Elder and claimed he saw Miss Dill on Elder's lap, kissing the former dean.

America has had no Comptroller General for over a year. The last one, you remember, made himself a nuisance by interfering with carefree spending.

Guards Ready For War Games

National Guardsmen Set Stage For Annual "War Games" At Camp

MEDICAL PHASES BEING TAUGHT

(International News Service)

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa., July 22. Pennsylvania's civilian soldiery, National Guardsmen of the 28th Division, enlightened by instructions and drills in the fine points of the art of war, continued elaborate plans afield and behind-the-scenes today for the annual "war games"—highlight of the annual encampment.

Medical phases of military activity, care of the wounded or sick in times of armed conflict, occupied much of the attention of the more than 9,000 troops yesterday with the 103rd Medical Regiment and Medical Detachments of other units setting up field first-aid stations and hospitals. Care of major and minor cases of wounds were topics outlined by the medical regiment officers.

Planes Pave Way

"Patients" were brought to the medical and surgical quarters for treatment of a wide variety of cases. Receiving stations took in the "victims" and they were later moved from the behind-the-line encampments to the division hospitalization points.

Planes of the 103rd observation squadron went aloft to prepare airmaps of the expansive battleground where the guardsmen are encamped for two weeks.

Maj. Gen. A. J. Bowley, commander of the third corps area, will review the troops Sunday prior to the opening of the annual maneuvers next week. Gov. George H. Earle's European vacation plans prevent him from attending the annual review, it was stated.

Work On Armory Will Be Speeded

Progress in the construction of the Joseph V. Cunningham armory in Cascade Park will be expedited between now and November 1 it was stated today in the office of the WPA. Authority has been received to permit the stone masons to work 100 hours per month instead of 60 hours.

Fourteen stone masons are now employed on the project and their 1400 working hours per month should show results within a short time. To supply them with stone an increase in the number of cutters in the quarries will be necessary.

Start "Little N.R.A." For Auto Dealers

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 22—A three-member board today began setting up the administration of Pennsylvania's "little NRA" for used automobile dealers.

Gov. George H. Earle yesterday announced appointment of the following members to the motor vehicles dealers' commission: Leo J. Speeder of Erie, salesman of new motor vehicles; William D. Teefy, Philadelphia, new motor vehicle dealer, and William R. Tucker, Jr., of Philadelphia.

The McGinnis act creating the "little NRA" establishes fixed prices for used cars through uniform appraisals.

Mrs. Hornsby Gives Her Version Of Hubby's Trouble

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, July 22.—Quarreling on the team and quarreling between Rogers Hornsby and the "bunch of tightwads" who own the team, resulted in the sudden dismissal of Hornsby as manager of the St. Louis Browns, Mrs. Hornsby revealed in a telephone interview today.

Explaining Hornsby was not at home, Mrs. Hornsby was reluctant to discuss his dismissal but when told because he once played with and managed the Chicago Cubs there was much interest in the situation here, she said:

"Well, there's been quarreling on the ball club and the job certainly has not been pleasant.

"Rogers has also been quarreling with the management. Recently the Browns lost a doubleheader and a lot of talk started."

Inventor Nearly Loses His Life In Descent Into River

Home-made Diving Suit Fails To Function As Was Intended

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 22.—James Quinn, 29-year-old embryo inventor, today was recovering from a severe case of submersion as a result of his descent to the bottom of the Hudson river in a home-made diving suit.

Some time ago Quinn "invented" his diving apparatus, consisting of a fire extinguisher, a sawed-off section of a 40-gallon milk can, a hose and weights to keep his body under water.

After the flywheel of his outboard motor board fell into the river, Quinn decided to test his diving suit in recovering the flywheel. He was lowered into the river with his friends pumping a steady supply of air from the fire extinguisher, attached to a hose that fitted into the milk can.

After Quinn was under water ten minutes, his friends became alarmed and pulled him up by the safety rope. He was unconscious and police had to work with an inhalator for nearly an hour to revive him. It developed that he had been using the fire extinguisher as a gasoline tank for his boat, and that his friends, instead of pumping fresh air to him, had been feeding him with gasoline fumes.

Civil Liberties Report Presented On Chicago Riot

Deaths Of Ten Strikers In Riot "Clearly Avoidable" Is Finding Made

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Death of ten strikers killed in Memorial Day riots at the Republic Steel corporation Chicago plant were "clearly avoidable," the Senate Civil Liberties committee held today, in its report upon the three-day investigation of the riots conducted some time ago.

Chicago police were held "accountable" for the deaths in the report filed in the senate today by the committee.

The committee, headed by Senator LaFollette (P) of Wisconsin, summed up its three-day investigation of the pitched battle with a general denunciation of the department of the police during the riot.

The report declared also that the "first shots were fired by the police," that the police failed to provide adequate medical treatment for the wounded, and that they were "unnecessarily brutal" in their treatment of the 2,000 marchers, which included women and children.

The report was in direct contradiction to the recent report of a coroner's jury at Chicago which termed the action of the police "justifiable homicide."

"Coffee-Sip" Takes Place Beside "Sit-Down" Now

(International News Service)

DETROIT, July 22.—The "coffee-sip" today took its place alongside the "sit-down," the "slow-down" and the "folded arms" in the lexicon of strike terms.

Approximately 200 of the A. F. of L. Restaurant Workers Union pickets flocked into the Brennan, Fitzgerland and Sinks restaurant shortly before noon yesterday, jammed the restaurant and ordered one cup of coffee each.

Three or four hours later, after all lunch hour customers had been turned away because of lack of tables, the pickets finished their first —and only—round of coffee and left quietly.

Farr Actually Thinks He Can Defeat Louis

Talkative English Heavyweight Says "Joe Louis Is No Superman"

Will Need One Round To Size Louis Up, Then It Will Be Curtains

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 22.—Imagine anybody saying—and believing—that fighting Joe Louis is just like attending a pink tea party!

Yet that is exactly what Tommy Farr, Welsh heavyweight, who is to battle Joe for his title August 26, not only says, but convinces you he actually believes.

Most Talkative.

Tommy is the most talkative heavyweight England ever saw. He also may be the best, as his manager Ted Broadribb and others insist. He not only can out-talk even Max Baer but also ; oved he could outpunch that most loquacious fighter in his last fight in London.

Tommy started talking on his arrival Tuesday and he's been at it ever since. His steady flow of words had the boys hanging on the ropes within two hours. Here's the gist of a few thousand words he passed out until we passed out. Tommy now talking:

"After working thousands of feet underground in a Welsh coal pit as I did for years when just a kid, fighting Joe Looey or anybody else will be just a pink tea to me. It was so hot down there that after awhile we could boil eggs with the drinking water in our canteens.

No Superman.

"Looey is no superman. He's got only two eyes, ears, hands and legs like anybody else.

"I'm sure I can beat him. Schmeling saw lots of mistakes in Looey and so do I. I've been studying the pictures of his fights and I'm convinced I'm smarter and faster than he is. I'm sure I've found a way to beat him.

"Looey has had just a few fights; I've had 253. He plainly shows his lack of experience. He lacks a sense of anticipation that a fighter gets who has had scores of fights. You get to know just what the other fellow intends to do.

Needs One Round.

"I'll need only about one round to size him up and then I'll go to work on him. I don't say I'll knock him out, but I surely will if he sticks his chin out.

"In a way, I think Looey will be easier for me than Baer was! A week before our fight, I told Baer I would lick him as sure as God made little apples and he laughed and I did. Looey may laugh, too, but after he shuffles in there with me I think he'll be glad to shuffle out again."

Thomas George Paul Farr is 23. He's six-foot-one and a half and weighs "fourteen stone twelve" (203 pounds to you) and "that's big enough to lick any man on earth."

Yellow fever has been advanced as the cause for the downfall of the far-reaching Maya civilization which once spread over Central America.

Masonic Golfers Will Stage Party At Ellwood City

Ellwood City Masonic Members Will Play Host On Monday Evening

One of the outstanding events in the Masonic golfing parties, which have been staged at intervals during the summer, will be the party arranged for Monday evening at the Ellwood City Country club, when Masonic golfers from Lawrence, Beaver, Butler and Mercer counties will get together.

Arrangements have been made by the Ellwood City group to have all facilities at the Ellwood City Country club open to the use of the visitors and play will continue from 4 p. m. until dark.

It is expected that around fifty New Castle Masons will take part in addition to a number from Beaver Falls, Rochester, New Brighton, Beaver, Butler, Grove City, Sharon, Mercer and intermediate points.

Red Sox Defeat South Hill, 9-5

Both Teams Use Two Hurlers; Red Sox Lead League

Red Sox defeated South Hill nine to five in a Lawrence County baseball league game on South Hills field yesterday and have a clean slate in the second half of the season having won four straight games.

Each team employed two pitchers, 10 hits having been collected from Vernino and Lenhardt, and five from Louer and Campbell. Pollerino and A. Bulisco hit doubles.

Boston Bees Win Two Games

Fette Wins His 12th Victory, Bees Headed For First Division Berth

PIRATES FOLD UP BEFORE DODGERS

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 22—The Boston Bees today seem definitely headed for a first division finish in the National League race and if they make the grade much of the credit will be due their tall 30-year old rookie named Lou Fette.

The Missouri right-hander who had been kicking around through the minor leagues for nine years until the Bees picked him up this season has provided the greatest one-man pitching of 1937.

Fette Wins Again

Holding the St. Louis Cardinals to 5 hits in 11 innings to win by 5-1 on Mueller's homer with the bags loaded, in the opening of a double header yesterday, Fette won his sixth extra inning game of the season, scored his 12th victory in 15 starts and turned in his fifth one-run performance. He also has hurled four shutouts.

The former star of the American association has compiled his phenomenal record with a club that generally was picked for sixth or seventh place at the start of the season, but which now figures to land among the first four, beating out the cards or the Pittsburgh Pirates in the first division.

Spurred on by what Fette accomplished in the opener, the Bees came charging back in the nightcap behind Johnny Lanning and beat none other than Dizzy Dean, who had been idle more than a week with a sore toe. Lanning outpitched the great one by 2 to 1, turning in a two-hit performance, to indicate still further what kind of pitching the Bees are getting.

Boston Advances

The double victory pulled the Bees up to within four games of the Cards, who are holding down fourth place, a game and a half behind the Pirates, who in turn trail the second place New York Giants by 6½ games. The Giants are two back of the Chicago Cubs.

Chicago added to its margin yesterday by sweeping a double header with the Philadelphia Phillies, 4 to 1 and 6 to 0, Lee pitching the opener and French the nightcap shutout.

Meanwhile the Giants were taking it on the chin from the Cincinnati Reds, 6 to 5 and the Pirates were being shut out by the Brooklyn Dodgers 6 to 0. George Jeffcoat hurled the Dodgers win—his first of the year.

Indians Win Two

The Yankes increased their margin in the American League by beating the St. Louis Browns, 6 to 3, while the Chicago White Sox were losing to Washington, 7 to 3.

With Bruce Campbell playing the role of hero in both games with his timely hitting the Cleveland Indians rallied in the ninth twice to beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 9 to 8 and 8 to 7. Bob Feller pitched the ninth inning of the opener and was credited with his first victory of the season.

Lefty Mose Grove hurled the Boston Red Sox to a 10 to 3 win over the Detroit Tigers.

West Pittsburg Hold Onto Lead

Will Play Board Of Trade Tonight In Important Game At West Pittsburg

West Pittsburg by taking the measure of the Colored Elks last night at West Pittsburg went a step closer to the first-half flag in the City Baseball league. It was victory number 16 for the West Pittsburgs.

Tonight at the West Pittsburg field the Board of Trade will try to upset the league leaders again, just as they did Monday night. This is an important game.

It is hoped that enough games can be played this week to decide the first half flag and start the second half on next Tuesday or Thursday at the most.

Standing of league:

	W.	L.	Pct.
West Pittsburg	16	6	.727
K. Pulaski	15	8	.652
Board of Trade	11	6	.647
Firemen	13	10	.565
Mahoning A. A.	9	8	.529
Indies	8	13	.380
Ryantown	8	14	.363
Colored Elks	4	20	.166

Results Last Night

West Pittsburgh 9—Colored Elks 4.

Ryantown 7—Mahoning A. A. 0.
Board of Trade 7—Firemen 3.

KIZER RECOVERING
(International News Service)

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 22.—Noble E. Kizer, Purdue football coach, was reported stronger today and indications were that he was recovering from the nephritic ailment that sent him to a hospital here Sunday.

Modern youngsters might show respect for their betters. They just don't happen to see any.

DIAMOND SPORTS

CONGLOSE LEADS

The Midget Softball league home run champ for the first half is Carmen Conglose, star third sacker of the Ross team, who has poled out six. Toscano of Maitlands, DeJoseph of Deweys and Nycz of Millers have clouted five, while Gennock of the Ross A. C. has hammered out four four-plyers.

LEADING PITCHERS

Leading the Midget Softball league pitchers is T. Boron of Millers and Congini of the Russos, who have won five and lost none. Nelson of the Deweys and DeFelice of Ross have chalked up four wins and no defeats. Danish of Millers has won two while Rubeis of Deweys and Maggie of Pearsons have only one win and no losses.

RADS TO PLAY BUTLER

Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the Radiator field, the National Radiator softball team opposes Howitzers of Butler. The visitors have won the Butler championship since 1931. An exciting game is anticipated.

LOCAL PLAYERS AWAY

New Castle is well represented when it comes to softball players in Youngstown. Five members of the Rads, two Nobils and one Saks participate in Ohio besides playing here. They are: Norman Bishara and Tex Richards of Nobils, Ted Turco of Saks and Peachy Fornataro, Dundo Ambrosia, Jimmy Yerage, Greg Ross and Irv Rubeis of the Rads team.

UNDEFEATED HURLERS

In the City Softball league five hurlers are undefeated. Lee Gairdo, Irv Rubeis and Stub Dweyer of the Rads, Al Ritchie of Saks and Blackie Nocera of Nobils have yet to taste the pill of defeat. Other outstanding hurlers include Greg Ross with 17 victories, all in a row, Victor Augostine and Mike Isabella of Nobils.

A. Z. A. WINS FORFEIT

The Lasal A. Z. A. mushball team won a forfeit game from the Shenango team, when the latter failed to appear at a scheduled league game Tuesday evening.

The Lasal team would like to schedule games with the Reliables during next week. For games with the A. Z. A. team, others should call Sam Safier, at 1363-M.

RANGERS WIN GAME

The Rangers handed the Millers, a 14 to 12 defeat in a baseball game. The best for the winners were Metta and Lucas. For the losers the work of Nycz was the best. The losing hurler was T. Boron.

CUNNINGHAM A. C. WINS

The Cunningham A. C. dropped the Arlington A. C. 19 to 12 in a softball game. Rhodes and Perrotta were the batteries for the Cunninghams. For the Arlingtons Fletcher and Hannon formed the battery. Rhodes besides hurling a great game, fanned 10 men and did some heavy clubbing.

EAGLES-CYCLONES TIED

Tuesday evening at Cyclone Field the Cyclones and Eagles played a 8-8 tie game. The game was halted by darkness, in the eighth inning. Dean Carson hurled for the Eagles. Ostrosky pitched for the Cyclones. Dan Drushel and Dean Carson had a pair of homers apiece to feature the hitting in the game. Jones had a triple.

Billy Conn Will Meet Ralph Chong At Youngstown, O.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 22.—The proposed re-match of Billy Conn, Pennsylvania state middleweight champion, and Teddy Yarosz, ex-world titlist, was temporarily sidetracked today when Conn's managers accepted a bout in a Pacific coast ring next month.

The pilots, Johnny Ray and Johnny McGarvey, announced a bout with Young Corbett in San Francisco on August 13, was arranged via long distance telephone. The East Liberty fighter will receive 30 per cent of the gate and three round-trip tickets for his share of the gate, the co-managers said.

Before making the trans-continental trip, though, Conn will honor a contract with Promoter Al Zill of Youngstown by meeting Ralph Chong, Chinese fighter of that city, on August 3.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Seventeen year old Bill Martin of the Beaver Valley Country club won the medal honors in the 36 hole qualifier of the seventeenth annual West Penn junior golf championship at Pittsburgh yesterday. Martin, playing in his fifth juvenile competition, topped a field of 20 with two consistent rounds of 77 for 154 and three shots better than Jack Brand of Sewickley Y.

Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex., yesterday moved a step nearer outright ownership of the Longwood bowl tennis trophy at Brookline, Mass., when he beat Howard Stephens, Jr., of St. Louis, 6-3, 6-3, in a third round match.

Louer pitched a no run, no hit game until the fifth frame against South Hill yesterday. It was in that frame he allowed two hits and was relieved.

Jean Tenney of Clear Springs, Md., won first place in the second and third rounds of the women's national archery championships Wednesday at Lancaster. She is leading Dorothy Budd, East Rockaway, N. Y., 1,407 points to 1,381 points.

Jess Willard, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world is now with a circus. He joined the tent aggregation several days ago.

Resume Wrangle On Sportsmanship

(International News Service)

LONDON, July 22.—Sensibilities of British sportsmen and golfing fans, inflamed by statements of members of the American Ryder Cup team in New York reflecting on the sportsmanship of British galleries, still were outraged today despite efforts of Walter Hagen to smooth things over.

Hagen said he personally had no complaints to make against the conduct of the British galleries at the international matches and advised the British to pay no attention to the charges of the American players.

A. J. Lacey, one of the British golfers who played against Ralph Guldahl, who accused the British of being "bad sports," retorted that Guldahl was a "difficult fellow."

Ryantown Trips Mahoning 7 To 0

"Dolly" Hartman Allows But Two Hits As Ryantown Takes Shutout

"Dolly" Hartman was in rare form last night at the Ryantown field as he allowed the Mahoning A. A. team but two hits to gain a 7 to 0 shutout victory over the seventh warders. The loss hurt Mahoning's chances of winning the first half flag.

Hartman fanned five men and walked five in winning his game.

"Goo" Lanigan and Maher were the hitting stars for the Ryantownians with three hits apiece. Lanigan had the only extra-base hit in the game.

Ryantown had one big inning, the third, when they scored four of their runs. The Ryantowns had 13 hits off of Rainey and Forgione.

The game between Mahoning A. A. and Ryantown scheduled for tonight has been postponed by the Ryantown team.

Nobils, Saks Radiator Win

Exciting City Softball League Games Are Played Wednesday Evening

After being held scoreless for three innings, the National Radiator softball team finally caught its range and batted its way to a 10-2 victory over the Strollers, at Rad's field, Wednesday. In other City Softball league games Nobils won a slugfest from Johnson Bronze, 15-11 and Saks won over Weavers, 5-3.

For the Rads it was the 32nd straight victory against only one loss. Irv Rubies was on the mound and permitted his East Side neighbors five bingles, while Dink Lane gave up 11 safe blows. Ambrosia, Cowmeadow, El Lockley, F. Nocera and B. Riley were outstanding. Joe Mazzari played first base for the Rads, replacing Frank Stone, who is confined to the New Castle hospital.

So far there has been quite a nice turnout of qualifers. Jimmy Smith is the defending champion. He is out of town working and may not enter the tourney this year in defense of his crown. "Izzy" Solomon is one of the favorites to cop the title this year. He was the runner up to Smith last year.

Why Was Rogers Hornsby Fired?

Your Guess Is As Good As Mine On That Score, Guessing Bee In St. Louis

By MAX KASE

International News Service Staff Correspondent

ST. LOUIS, July 22.—The unexpected firing of Rogers Hornsby as manager of the Browns today provoked a general guessing bee as fans cast about for the real reasons behind the summary action.

The old chestnut of the Rajah's race horse betting has been revived. While a member of the Cubs, Hornsmy allegedly became involved with Bill Veeck, the president of the club, for gambling. Years and years back, Frank Moore, a Cincinnati "bookie," filed suit for $90,000 against Hornsby. Moore lost the action.

Said Hornsby:

"Sure, I play the horses. But why bring up that old theme song? There was nothing in my contract which specifically said I couldn't do this or that. I've been fired before, so its no novelty. That's baseball, I suppose. But why bring up that old bogey?"

Donald L. Barnes, president of the Browns, continues close-mouthed. He referred questioners to his sparse explanations which accompanied yesterday's notice of dismissal. They were "released for cause" and "for the best interests of the Browns." He refused to elaborate.

Correct This sentence: "We skimped and saved all our lives to build a fortune," said the father, "and we want our children to spend it freely and enjoy it."

West Pittsburg Defeats Elks

Score Is 9 To 4 In Postponed City League Game At West Pittsburg

West Pittsburg went one step nearer the first-half flag in the City Baseball League last night at the West Pittsburg field by taking the measure of the Colored Elks 9 to 4 in a postponed league encounter.

Johnny Winters had the pitching assignment for the West Pittsburgs and held the heavy hitting Elks team to four bingles. He fanned six men. Sammy Gray opposed Winters and allowed 11 hits. He whiffed seven batters.

Robert Elsesser was the hitting star for the winners, with three safe ones, including a pair of doubles. Other heavy hitters were—J. Elsesser, John Markey, Joseph Markey and Kosier.

Penn Powers Top Universals

Those heavy hitting Penn Power softball players led by Howard "Slugger" Warnock, topped the Universal A. A. last night at the George Washington field 9 to 8 in a rip sizzling contest. Quite a big crowd was present to marvel at the ability of the Electric Light stars.

It was the second time that the Power boys have turned the trick on the Pottery workers, the score recently being 11 to 10.

Finley and General formed the battery for the Universals last night. "Bill" Robinson started on the mound for the Penn Power boys, but gave way to Hensley in the sixth, who silenced the bats of the losers. Pabst did the catching.

Warnock of the Penn Powers and Cunningham of the Unies had home run drives to feature the hitting of the battle. It was the second homer for Warnock in as many games.

Score by innings:

Builders' Supplies

PROTECTION plus INSULATION for cost of shingles only

Carey Cork-Insulated Shingle is the modern, double-duty shingle for homes not provided with standard roof insulation. Outside slate surface insures a lasting weather-tight roof. Cork layer underneath adds efficient insulation. When used with standard insulation, this shingle provides extra insulating value at cost of roof alone.

Made Only By Carey

Years of service, on thousands of homes, in all sections of the country, prove the efficiency and durability of this famous shingle. Attractive, non-fading colors. Extra thickness enhances roof beauty. Before you reroof or build, get free sample and prices. It's the TOP in roofing VALUE.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL.

Since the motorist has made Highland avenue a speed way the city has seen fit to take the situation in hand and fine a few . . . well this word got around as word will so the motorist thought he would leave Highland avenue and find some place else to speed . . . well to make a long story short he looked for a newly paved street . . . that street upon which he picked was none other than Hazelcroft avenue . . . it is just like glass and a very great temptation to the speeding no-nothing . . . that would be a great street to speed on if the street was in the country . . . it happens to be my dear friends, in the city and is lined with homes . . . in those homes are little children . . . and little children run in the streets in spite of what their parents tell them . . . if you all could only remember when you were small . . . you can however remember the law about speeding . . . protect our children and do it today.

• • •

A note came to this desk today . . . it has to do with people suffering with corns . . . you know, those little things that get kicked when you are dancing . . . that little sore spot on the outside of the little toe . . . well this lady (name not for public) claims this remedy is just the thing . . . here 'tis . . . Use fine sand-paper on hard corns and callouses, then wet a piece of cotton in Milk of Magnesia . . . keep this on morning and night this will relieve all soreness . . . Will someone try this . . . we haven't any corns at present . . . it's not the season.

• • •

They claim the girls at the YWCA camp are having a fine time . . . every moment is occupied with interesting things to do . . . we were wondering how the counselors were getting along . . . they have some mighty fine ones out there.

• • •

Let's not forget what the columns around this column are for . . . a little classified ad will help make your vacation a pleasant one . . . also follow the farmer and his offers in these columns . . . read them today.

• • •

Why is Big Bill Reynolds down hearted this week? . . . could it be that he is that way about a certain person . . . Miss Emma Belle Buxton is spending the week out of town . . . David Paul McBride leaves this week for Canada and fish.

HO-HUM!

The club bore was relating one of his long-winded stories that everybody knew by heart. He was describing what had occurred to him when he went on trip to Grand Canyon.

"The soft curtian of night was just falling," he orated. "There I stood, drinking in the scene, with the giant abyss yawning before me."

One of the listeners interrupted at this point. "Say," he asked, "was that abyss yawning before you got there?"

Stock Market Pushes Ahead

Some Motor Stocks Move Up Three Points And Better In Rise Today

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, July 22.—The stock market pushed forward today with steel and motor shares setting the pace. Gains in leaders ran from one to two points. Profit-taking appeared but the undertone was strong.

Chrysler moved ahead more than three points and General Motors rose a point.

U. S. Steel pushed forward for a gain of more than two points, Youngstown did as well. Bethlehem and National were up a point each.

Utilities showed fractional gains.

Rails edged forward, led by N. Y. Central and farm implements showed a buoyant undertone. Case Threshing ran up more than four points and International Harvester advanced a point. Mail orders moved up in sympathy.

Elsewhere the tendency was firm. Aviations improved, Douglas rising nearly a point. Amusements continued in demand at fractionally higher levels. Paramount was active.

Auto equipments staged a belated rise, reflecting the recent strength in the motors. Briggs rose two points and Electric Auto Lite a point.

Copper shares were generally higher. Wilson was sluggish in the packers. Oils were steady. American Locomotive rose two points in the rail equipments.

The French franc hit a new low in foreign exchanges and then rallied to above the previous close. Rents were strong on an irregular Paris bourse. The London market was steady in restricted dealings.

Wheat was firm after yesterday's late rally. Cotton was steady and other commodities were mixed. Bonds were quiet.

Local Men Will Leave Saturday On Trip Abroad

Atty. Frank Moretti And James Marion Swisher To Take Six Weeks Cruise

Attorney Frank Moretti, of 431 Park avenue, and James Marion Swisher of 810 Wilmington avenue, left here Wednesday for New York City from where they will sail at noon Saturday, on the "Saturina" for an extended Mediterrannean cruise.

The local men will make their first stop at Naples. Also, they will visit in Austria Switzerland, Holland and England. They have planned an interesting tour of these countries.

A. "Whiffett" McBride of this city drove the men to New York early yesterday morning. He will return to this vicinity within a few days.

May Withdraw Opposition To Building Work

During council meeting today a resolution was passed which may result in the erection of a safe structure in Grove street, a section of which collapsed some months ago killing Frederick Taylor.

Councilmen in the measure today said they are willing, in time, to have their petition to court, naming the structure unsafe, dismissed, providing the Taylor heirs or J. Richardson secure a New Castle architect who is registered to supervise the plans and work.

However, all dangerous parts of the building must be removed within 30 days from now and then a new permit be taken out at the city engineer's office and that only a safe building be erected.

The petition to court will not be asked to be dismissed until the city officials are satisfied that all of their requests have been complied with.

WAMPUM

NEEDLECRAFT CLASS

The Needlecraft class of Wampum held a basket picnic at the Wampum basball park on Wednesday evening. The table presented an appetizing appearance with its array of colored viands. A very enjoyable program of races and contests was arranged by a committee composed of Mrs. Irwin Holmes and Miss Nellie Grinnen. Mrs. Savilla Patterson won the husband calling and the whistling contests, while Mrs. Dorothy Radermacher and Miss Fanny DeMaio tied in the balloon race.

While the group was seated at the table, the teacher, Mrs. Nellie Summers, in a very novel way, tendered a farewell handkerchief shower to Mrs. Savilla Patterson, one of the group, who is moving to Ellwood City.

Later in the evening the class went to the high school auditorium where the remainder of the evening was spent in playing bingo and some very pleasing musical selections were rendered by several of the group. Everyone reported a wonderful time.

Plans were made to form a motorcade to Pittsburgh to visit educational points of interest, in the near future.

Mrs. Thelma Yoho, Mrs. Leila Allen and Mrs. Laura Mills of Clinton were out of town guests.

Bitter Criticism Hurled Against Administration

Congressman Clare Hoffman Makes Speech At Meyersdale, Pa.

(International News Service)

MEYERSDALE, Pa., July 22.—A bitter criticism of the Roosevelt administration's attitude during the recent wave of strikes was left here Wednesday by Congressman Clare E. Hoffman.

In his address before 1,000 Republicans here Hoffman declared:

"We have witnessed a defiance of court orders, interference with the United States mails, the suppression of the right to work by military powers of the state.

"For the first time in the history of the United States armed forces of a great state, acting on orders of the governor, have driven men—peace-loving, hard-working, law-abiding men—from their usual employment.

"For the first time in the history of our country, a president of the United States has approved, by silence, the acts of a governor in Michigan who prevented, for a time, the enforcement of lawful orders of a court in that state."

July Meeting Of Garden Forum Held

Lawrence County Garden Forum Meeting Proves Interesting

Garden Forum of Lawrence county area held its July meeting a week later than usual out of deference to Mrs. Chas. M. Greer, deceased member of the Lawrence County Garden Club, which was responsible for the July program.

When the business of the Forum was concluded, a garden clinic was held with Owen Fox, city forester, informing the group that the brown leaves of some newly planted Red Bud trees are caused by the action of the sun and rain. Those trees planted in the shade are not affected and it is not fatal to the trees. The public is also informed that Red Bud trees which have shown no growth since planting, are merely dormant and will send forth new shoots next spring.

An interesting report of the trip to Howe farm near Cook's Forest, was given by Mrs. B. K. Kannenberg and Mrs. William Butler. Mrs. William A. Howley, also participated in the program. The usual order or roll call was reversed and at the close of the discussion on mountain laurel and rhododendron, the members of the Forum gave interesting facts concerning these shrubs and their culture. Of unusual interest were the following: Sensation Cosmos of exceptional size and beauty from the garden of Mrs. John Robinson of East Brook; a Japanese rhododendron, displayed by Mrs. Vane Johns and coral honeysuckle brought in by Mrs. Harry Wettich.

The Forum was glad to welcome Mrs. Colin Campbell of New Bedford, who has recently returned from a prolonged stay in California.

A report of the meeting of a Garden Forum committee with the council was given and the Forum as a whole will be intensely interested in the outcome of this meeting. Council has offered a reward of $25 for the conviction of persons who commit acts of vandalism in city parks, and it is hoped that this good beginning will be followed through.

The August meeting of the Garden Forum will be held in East Brook with the East Brook Garden Club sponsoring the program.

Pair Walk Away From Workhouse

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 22.—Officials of the Allegheny County Workhouse were mortified today. Why? Because two guests, Vincent Hornick and Cecil Ballinger, both of McKeesport, grew tired of mowing hay and picking tomatoes and walked away. They haven't been seen since.

Jail officials were very, very hurt. "Most of our guests like it real well," one spokesman volunteered.

The men had been sentenced to 30 days for drunkenness.

Dr. David Young To Open Offices

Served Two Years In Harrisburg Hospital Following Graduation From Temple

Dr. David C. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, of Maryland avenue, will open offices at 1212 East Washington street, on Friday, July 23, 1937, for the practice of medicine.

Dr. Young for the past two years has been at the Polyclinic hospital, Harrisburg, Pa., where he served his internship and then was appointed chief resident physician.

After graduating from New Castle high school he attended Allegheny college, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science. At Allegheny college he was a member of the Delta Tau Delta national social fraternity and Alpha Chi Sigma, honorary chemical society.

The degree of Doctor of Medicine and Surgery was received in 1935 from Temple university medical school, Philadelphia, Pa. Dr. Young was active in social and fraternal work at Temple, having been president of the Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity and a member of the physicological and pediatric societies. Several summers while in medical school were spent at the Pittsburgh City hispital as a junior resident.

Youngstown Forms 28th Society Post

Will Participate In National Convention To Be Held Here August 5, 6, 7

At a national convention of service men there is always a baby post in attendance. The city to have that distinction in the convention of the Society of the 28th Division here on August 5-6-7 will be Youngstown, O. a post having been formed there on Tuesday night.

There are a number of former 28th division men in Youngstown, some of them former New Castle residents. With the national convention of the society in New Castle, they felt they wanted to be represented at the convention and the formation of the post followed.

While most of the posts at the convention will be from Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Ohio will be represented. Other states will be represented by individuals a number coming from western states to attend the convention here.

Girls At Camp To Leave Friday Night

Another twelve-day period at Camp East Brook is about over and Friday night 59 girls will return to their homes, tanned and healthy, with many happy memories and a host of new friends.

Over the week end the Y. W. C. A. camp will not be used but on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock a new crowd of girls will arrive, bag and baggage, for the final period of the season.

The dinner will be served in the dining room of the Leslie hotel. The regular business session will follow the dinner.

Russia is much like a democracy. Stalin seems to think a poor mechanic can be a good general if he's a good party man.

John Barleycorn is overdoing it. He has regained his place in the sun and keeps his moonshine still.
